ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me great pleasure to record my deepest gratitude to Professor S. Mallikarjunan, M.A.(Madras), M.A.(Chicago), Ph.D.(Sauger), Professor, Department of English, University of Saugar, under whose guidance this work has been completed. I have benefited from his suggestions and through discussions with him.

I am indebted to Professor Mohan Lal, Head of the Department of English, University of Saugar, for his suggestions from time to time, and constant encouragement during the course of this work.

I should thank here the British Council Library, Bombay for making many a useful book available to me. Thanks are also due to the Librarian, C.I.E.F.L.Library, Hyderabad and the Director, A.S.R.C., Hyderabad. My indebtedness to the Librarian, British Library, Trivandrum is gratefully acknowledged here. Likewise, I am grateful for help and courtesy from the Librarian and the staff of the Saugar University Library.

I must specially thank the U.G.C. for financial support to the project through a Junior Research Fellowship.

Personal debts are the most difficult to acknowledge in formal terms. Yet special and grateful mention must be made of Mr.T.C.Varghese and Mr.P.C.Varghese who have neatly typed out the dissertation with personal care and of my wife and my sister for their patience and constant encouragement.

Gheevarghese V.C.
