With a deep sense of gratitude, I express my sincere thanks to my reverend teacher and supervisor Dr. K Saratchandra Singh, Professor Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur for his invaluable advises, able guidance, keen interest and constant help without which this thesis work would have not taken the present shape. His optimistic reassurances during the moment of despair have made this ardous task of thesis a pleasure for me. His untiring interest in the field of research and creative thinking has created an everlasting inspiration in my mind.

I am sincerely grateful to Shri M. Shyamkishore Singh’s family, specially to M. Brojen Singh and also to his friend Mr. Kiran Singh for their constant help throughout the entire period of my field work.

I consider myself very fortunate to have friends like E. Girija Devi, W. Nungshitombi Devi, H. Memcha Devi, H. Sorojini Devi and Th. Medhabati Devi for rendering their help whenever necessary.

I am particularly indebted to Professor A. Brajakumar Sharma, Dr. Ladu Singh and Miss Loidang for their time to time statistical help. My sincere thanks goes to S. Manichandra Singh, Ch. Shivaji Singh and Th. Doren Singh for their help in computing the calculations and graphs.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not express my sincere thanks to R.K. Chiranjit Singh for preparing the map and also to my brother-in-law W. Bikram Singh for his untiring help in preparing the script.

My sincere thanks goes to my brother-in-law Sqd. Ldr. H.T.S. Meitei and Ch. Sarojnalini Devi, Assistant Professor, Life Science Department, M.U. for the trouble they took for acquiring few valuable research materials. I would like to express my deep gratitude to my father late Maharajkumar Ghanendrajit Singh and my mother Smt. Maharajkumar Ongbi Mangi Shiija, and to all my brothers and sisters for their unstinted support and encouragement.

I am indebted and grateful to all the teachers of the Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur for their cooperation and encouragement during the entire period of this thesis work. I am particularly grateful to Dr. M.C. Arun, Assistant Professor, for relentlessly advising me during the initial stage of my thesis work.

I express my sincere thanks to all the people of Thoubal Athokpam village, with whom I have interacted and indeed were the foundation of my work.

To my husband Dr. W. Asoka Singh MD and my daughter Raeghnya Wangkheimayum for all their moral and physical support and for the good times we share. I recall the patience and understanding displayed by my daughter at her tender age, by her continuous encouragement when I should really be devoting to her needs and without which this thesis surely would not have been completed and I acknowledge her many virtues with much love.
