ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have to acknowledge that the pursuit of my PhD is not a solo journey. There are a number of individuals to whom I owe a special debt of gratitude. During the four years of my study as doctoral student, I had the opportunity to gain knowledge and share experiences with different stakeholders who contributed a lot to enrich my thoughts as a researcher. I am grateful to all of them; and it is now a pleasure for me to acknowledge their contributions.

First and foremost, I must record my profound gratitude, sincere appreciation, moral indebtedness and heartfelt thanks to Prof. H. Ramananda Singh; my respected supervisor and the Head, Department of Business Administration, Assam University, Silchar; for his dedicated and aspiring mentorship, intellectual guidance and wise counselling right from conceptualizing the research proposal till the preparation of this thesis. Enduring with this long journey would not have been possible without his unsparing support, encouragement, guidance, thoughtfulness, and farsightedness.

Words are not adequate to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Prof. A. Mazumdar, Dean, Jawaharlal Nehru School of Management Studies, Assam University, Silchar for providing me valuable guidance and motivation to pursue the Ph. D research in the field of entrepreneurship. I always feel cherished to receive the continuous moral support from his generosity which obliges me to go deeper in academic pursuit and upgrade the quality of my research to the extent feasible.
I am highly thankful to late Prof. R.K. Raul, Prof. A. L. Ghosh (my respected teacher) and Dr. Arup Barman, Associate Professor, Department of Business Administration, Assam University, Silchar, for their kind support & invaluable guidance in completing this study. My gratitude also goes out to Dr. Dibyojyoti Bhattacharjee, Associate Professor, Department of Business Administration, Assam University, Silchar; who contributed a lot throughout my struggles with numbers.

It is a privilege for me to record intense gratitude to my respected teacher Prof. S. K. Bhattacharjee who happens to be a constant source of inspiration & guidance all through my academic career. I also sincerely acknowledge the inspiration and support that I received from Prof. N. B. Dey, Prof. D. K. Pandiya, and Prof. Niranjan Roy, Department of Commerce and Economics, Assam University, Silchar.

I greatly acknowledge all my esteemed colleagues - Dr. Anurag Singh, Dr. Debomalya Ghosh, Dr. Nigamananda Biswas, Dr. Ranjit Singh, Mrs. Juthika Konwar, Mr. Amit Kumar Das, Mrs. Lurai Rongmei, Mr. Deepjyoti Choudhury, Mrs. Nilanjana Chakravarty and Ms. Rajasree Dutta Purkayastha for their encouragement, valuable comments and suggestions, which helped to enrich the quality of my research work.

I am deeply indebted to Mr. S. Bhattacharjee, Managing Director, NERAMC; the Director, IIE Guwahati; Dr. N. Dhaneswar Singh, Manager NEDFI; the Director & Deputy Directors of Industries, Guwahati; Mr. T. K. Chakravarty, Director In-charge MSME-DI, Silchar and all the General Managers & Field Officers of DICs of four districts namely Cachar, Kamrup, Nagaon & Dibrugarh for their kind help and support during data collection phase of my research. I sincerely acknowledge the help and cooperation extended by the entrepreneurs who, in spite of their tiring office schedule, provided me adequate time for interaction as and when required. Without their whole hearted cooperation the study could not be completed.

My heartfelt thanks are extended to the librarians of IIE GHY, Assam University, Silchar; Hyderabad University, Hyderabad, Gorakhpur University, Gorakhpur, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi and Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for their incessant support in providing necessary materials without any hesitation. The generous help and cooperation rendered by library staffs of these libraries are also unforgettable.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Hemanta Saikia, Dr. Chayan Paul and Mr. Manash Pratim Kashyap, Research Scholars of the department, for their constant help in statistical analysis and preparation of the report. My thanks are also due to Mr. Amoles Sen, Mr. Sanjit Deb, Mr. Sujit Deb and other office staff of the department for providing me valuable information as and when required.

A mere expression of indebtedness would be insufficient for my parents and relatives who have been a constant source of inspiration and who provided their relentless moral support and encouragement to complete the work right from the commencement.
Last but definitely not the least, my deepest appreciation to my beloved wife Mrs. Shaheen Laskar, for her unrelenting support and active involvement during this journey.

Finally I wish to thank all those whose names could not be mentioned here but their enormous help in the accomplishment of my research cannot be ignored. While utmost care was taken towards the accuracy and authenticities of the research work, it goes without saying that I fully shoulder the responsibilities of any inadvertent error that might have crept in.

Place: Silchar ........................................
Date: 23.04.2014 (Habibur Rahman Laskar)