ACKNOWLEDGMENT

At the very outset, I, gratefully acknowledge the help and advice of a number of friends and scholars in the preparation of this thesis morever.

I feel great pleasure to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and obligations to them.

I am specially and deeply indebted to Dr. M.C. Arun, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur for his valuable and pain staking guidance, instruction and suggestion in every step and supervision during the course of this research in particular which has really enriched in shaping the present study and without which this book would not have been accomplished.

I also owe a debt of special gratitude to Dr. W. Nabakumar Singh, Associate Professor, Head of the Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur, who has helped me in convincing my supervision at the time of Ph. D. Registration as well as for his previous part in encouraging me from time to time to complete the course.

I am also grateful to Dr. K. Saratchandra Singh, Professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur, for accepting the Registration of Ph. D. in this Department during his period.

I also express my deep gratitude to Dr. Ch. Budhi Singh, Professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur, who has suggested me to work on Gorkha community. Inspite of his busy schedule, he has always been ready to extend his valuable helps and suggestions.
I would like to express my gratefulness to Dr. T. Shyamacharan Singh and Dr. S. Jibonkumar Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, Manipur University, Canchipur for their suggestions and encouragements and helps in various ways.

My hearty thanks go to the Mr. & Mrs. Bhabani Adhikari, Assistant teacher of Keithelmanbi High School, General Secretary of Manipur Nepali Sahitya Parishad, who helps me a lot in data collection and gives proper information during field work of Mantripukhri and Miss Durga Sharma, Selection Grade Lecturer, D.M.C. of Arts, from Mantripukhri for her co-operation during field work in Mantripukhri. I also thank Mrs. Bineeta Rai and Mr. Benu Gautam and other college students of Mantripukhri for their helps and co-operations during field work.

I am also grateful to Mr. Alok Gautam Assistant teacher and President of Manipur Sahitya Parishad and a resident of Koirengei for his valuable helps in giving informations.

I am thankful to Mrs. Sushila Devi, Assistant teacher of Serou High School for her co-operation and shares me a lot for collecting data in Serou village and also extend my thanks to the teaching staffs of Serou High School for helping and guiding during my field work.

My heartiest thanks go to Ghanashyam Acharya, Lecturer of Johnstone Higher Secondary School, Imphal, from Kanglalongbi for his encouragement and providing valuable informations and also thanks to Hare Krishna Shivakoti, Lecturer, Presidency College, Motbung and a resident of Kanglalongbi village for his co-operation and guidance in collecting information and also extend my thankful to the present Pradhan of Kanglalongbi Mrs. Damar Kumari Mukhya and Shri Churamani Kharel (Ex-Pradhan) for their helps and giving me many case history of the village.

I am thankful to the elderly people of Kanglalongbi such as Chintamani Dulal, Krishna Prasad Baral, Churamani Kharel etc. for their valuable informations and narrating the folk tales of their community and also thanks to the members of Mandir Committee, Kanglalongbi for their full co-operation during field work.
I extend my heartiest thanks to the Nephews, K. Mahesh, K. Mantosh, A. Vikash, A. Vivek and also niece, K. Sanjeeta, K. Sameeda, K. Minota, Miss A. Portia for their helps and encouragements during my research work.

My special thanks go to Dr. R.K. Harshyam Singh who gives me all sorts of supports, moral inspiration and constant encouragement during the research work.

I am thankful to Kh. Raju and M. Bimol of Computer Design Centre, Uripek who takes a lot of pain for computer type setting of this thesis.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to the parent and family members who always encourage me to complete my research work.

K. Ibetombi Devi

Kangabam Ibetombi Devi