ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis embodies the research–work carried out by me under the able guidance of my research supervisor Prof. K.C. Belliappa, who amidst his busy schedule of administrative and academic engagements, took keen interest in guiding me at every phase of my study and enriched my work with insightful and timely suggestions.

I offer my humble gratitude to the Chairperson and the members of the faculty of the Department of Studies in English, University of Mysore. My special thanks to Dr. K.M. Chandar, for offering useful suggestions and encouragement throughout my years of study.

My deepest gratitude to Sri. K.V. Subbanna, the Founder of ‘Ninasam’, Heggodu and Sri Mumtaz Ali, Founder of the Satsang Foundation, Bangalore for being the perennial sources of inspiration and strength, and for having deeply influenced my perception.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. Sarvamangala, Retd. Principal of Maharaja’s College, Mysore and Dr. Indira, Department of Studies in Sociology, University of Mysore for their kind help in the initial years of my study.

I am extremely indebted to Dr. Yeshoda Nanjappa, Professor of English, Yuvaraja’s College, Mysore, for her constant and generous help right from the beginning of my research despite her own academic commitments.

I recall the co-operation of the librarians of Mangalore University; University of Mysore; CIIL, Mysore; ASRC and Anveshi, Hyderabad and American Corner, Bangalore; who helped me in securing useful books from these libraries. My sincere thanks to Prof. Jaishree Sanjay for allowing me to avail the resources and facilities at Dhvanyaloka, Mysore.

My heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Pushpa Kuttanna, Principal, Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa, College, Madikeri, for her ever inspiring words of encouragement.

I remember with love the confidence and support offered unconditionally by late Sri. N. Govindaraj, Smt. Sukanya, Sri. Srinivasa Murthy, Smt. Janaki S. Murthy, Smt. Pallavi and Sri. Anil Kumar. My special thanks to Smt. Pushpa and Sri. M.B. Suresh Murthy, for gladly accommodating me whenever I was in Mysore.

My warm thanks to my husband Balaji Kashyap and daughter Gauri for infusing courage and confidence in me and being with me all through the course of my study.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the efficient services of Sri Praveen and his staff who did a neat job in printing this thesis.

Nayana K.S.
A Note on Translation

All translations from Kannada to English are mine unless otherwise mentioned.