“A journey of thousand miles begins with single step”.

The long journey of my educational phase seems to have passed with the blink of an eye. I thank the Almighty who has generously bestowed such esteemed education on my destiny. This thesis is the result of constant hard work whereby I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is a moment of immense pleasure for me to express my regards and gratitude for all of them.

I feel exceptionally privileged and a deep sense of gratitude from the core of my heart towards my supervisor Prof. V.K. Gupta for his advice, constant encouragement over years, insightful guidance, “tireless editing” and most importantly for always being willing to listen. I am especially indebted for his patience in handling my shortcomings which have helped me immensely towards developing my research skills. His generosity, affection and understanding will always remain engrained in my memory. I am really blessed to get an opportunity to work under his guidance. I value his concern and support at all times. Patience, hardworking nature and optimistic attitude are few of his qualities, which will continue to inspire me in all spheres of my life. I owe him lots of gratitude for having me shown this way of research. I am again thankful to almighty God, who provided me supervisor like you.

Truly admitting, I have no words to express my inner feelings towards my Co-supervisor to Dr. Neelam Garg, Chairperson, Department of Microbiology, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, under whose joint supervision research for the present thesis was carried out. And I am also indebted to him for his valuable suggestions, moral boost-up and his dynamic role played during my thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. N. N. Dogra, Chairperson and all others teachers of Department of Biochemistry, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for their help extended during the entire period of Ph.D. Program.

I humbly owe my sincere thanks to Dr. Om Prakash Arora, Department of Chemistry, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his valuable suggestions and support during the entire period of Ph.D. Program.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Hari Singh, Prof. Emeritus, Department of Biochemistry, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his valuable suggestions and support during the entire period of Ph.D. Program.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Ramesh Chander Kuhad, Professor, Department of Microbiology, University of Delhi, South Campus, New Delhi for their guidance and invaluable help during the time of need.

I express my whole hearted thanks to Dr. Jitender Sharma, Dr. Anita Yadav, Dr. Sanjeev Gautam, Dr. Raman Saini and Dr. Ritu Mahajan from Department of Biotechnology, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for invaluable help rendered to me during the time of need. They always helped me to get the best out of the most difficult moments of my doctoral work.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Anita Dua University College, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for her guidance and invaluable help during the time of need.
I express my special thanks to entire non-teaching staff of the Department of Biochemistry, Microbiology and Biotechnology for their full co-operation during research.
