ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The much-awaited moment is the one when the researcher feels ecstatic in expressing his gratitude to all those who contributed to the completion of the study in one form or the other and this moment has ultimately braced my fate today. Though it is not possible to mention all of them by name, my indebtedness to all those is no less.

It enthralls in me immense pleasure while expressing my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed teacher and guide Prof. Khurshid Ali, former Dean and Head, Department of Management Studies, University of Kashmir for his support and guidance throughout the period of my study. His deep insight into the problem with indefatigable fact-finding zeal not only made it possible for me to benefit from his constructive criticism but also inculcated in me a habit of clear thinking as a researcher.

I must put on record my gratitude to Prof. A. M. Shah, Dean and Head, Department of Management Studies, University of Kashmir for his constant advice, insightful suggestions and encouragement. His valuable and critical observations were a constant source of inspiration for me to dedicate myself, heart and soul, to my work.

Words are not explicit of the gratitude, which I owe to Prof. A. R. Mattoo, Professor, Department of Management Studies for certain valuable suggestions extended by him at certain stages during the research work.

The congenial atmosphere already in vogue in the Department was a vital contribution in evolving my research work to its logical conclusion. The invaluable research based tip offs extended by all colleagues in the Department has been a catalyst towards the completion of the work. I am also thankful to the officials of the Department for their extended help, whenever it was sought for.

This piece of research work owes to a great extend to the teachers of Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad for imbibing in me a genuine research orientation and my gratitude to all of them is indefinable and immeasurable.
Academicians like Prof. Sidharth Sinha, Prof. I. M. Pandey, Prof. G. S. Gupta, Prof. Balakrishnan and Prof. D. M. Pestonjee need a special mention for giving a progressive fillip during the course of the study.

The management of the J&K State Financial Corporation and the J&K State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. are specially thanked for providing all data material including an unfettered access to the appraisal processes of the selected projects. I am indebted, in particular, to the appraisal officers of these institutions for deliberations and discussions in addition to sparing their valuable time by adequately responding to my interview schedules. Special thanks are due to Mr. G. Q. Wani, Managing Director, Mr. Qibbitain, Manager (Finance), Mr. Reyaz Ahmad and Mr. Fayaz Ahmad, Managers (Development Banking), J&K SIDCO. Also my thanks are due to Mr. Shrish Dutt, General Manager, Mr. Farooq Ahmad, Chief Manager (Appraisals) and Mr. Iftikhar Hussain, Chief Manager (Finance), J&K SFC.

I am greatly obliged to all the staff members of the Libraries of the University of Kashmir, Srinagar; Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad; National Institute of Bank Management, Pune; Punjab University, Chandigarh; Delhi School of Economics; Aligarh Muslim university, Aligarh for allowing me to take up this opportunity of learning.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not extend my thanks to Dr. A Gani, Regional Director, IGNOU; Javid Iqbal Mattoo, Deputy Director, Planning and Statistics, J&K Govt. and Mohammad Shafi Sofi, Lecture, Department of Commerce, University of Kashmir, whose constant inspiration and help proved a boon towards the culmination of this study.

No words can adequately express my debt of gratitude to my parents and uncle for generating in me a perennial interest in higher studies. I am highly obliged to my brothers, and in particular my nephew, Nisar, who provided me all the moral support during the course of the study.

I wish to put on record the overwhelming co-operation extended by my spouse and, but for whose patience, support, encouragement, understanding and Academicians like Prof. Sidharth Sinha, Prof. I. M. Pandey, Prof. G. S. Gupta, Prof. Balakrishnan and Prof. D. M. Pestonjee need a special mention for giving a progressive fillip during the course of the study.

The management of the J&K State Financial Corporation and the J&K State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. are specially thanked for providing all data material including an unfettered access to the appraisal processes of the selected projects. I am indebted, in particular, to the appraisal officers of these institutions for deliberations and discussions in addition to sparing their valuable time by adequately responding to my interview schedules. Special thanks are due to Mr. G. Q. Wani, Managing Director, Mr. Qiblitain, Manager (Finance), Mr. Reyaz Ahmad and Mr. Fayaz Ahmad, Managers (Development Banking), J&K SIDCO. Also my thanks are due to Mr. Shrish Dutt, General Manager, Mr. Farooq Ahmad, Chief Manager (Appraisals) and Mr. Iftikhar Hussain, Chief Manager (Finance), J&K SFC.

I am greatly obliged to all the staff members of the Libraries of the University of Kashmir, Srinagar; Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad; National Institute of Bank Management, Pune; Punjab University, Chandigarh; Delhi School of Economics; Aligarh Muslim university, Aligarh for allowing me to take up this opportunity of learning.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not extend my thanks to Dr. A Gani, Regional Director, IGNOU; Javid Iqbal Mattoo, Deputy Director, Planning and Statistics, J&K Govt. and Mohammad Shafi Sofi, Lecture, Department of Commerce, University of Kashmir, whose constant inspiration and help proved a boon towards the culmination of this study.

No words can adequately express my debt of gratitude to my parents and uncle for generating in me a perennial interest in higher studies. I am highly obliged to my brothers, and in particular my nephew, Nisar, who provided me all the moral support during the course of the study.

I wish to put on record the overwhelming co-operation extended by my spouse and, but for whose patience, support, encouragement, understanding and love this piece of research would not have been the dawn of fruition. Words are short of explanation for the endurance shown by my son and daughter for the lost loving moments due to my hectic engagements during the progress of the study. Their tolerance is huge and thus hugely acknowledged.

Finally, I must record my thanks to M/S Wajahat Publications, Hazratbal for the cooperation and help in providing computer facilities for the present script.

Mushtaq Ahmad Darzi
Lecturer
Department of Management Studies
University of Kashmir