CONTENT DETAILS

1. The Introduction
   I. Backdrop
   II. The Need for the Study
   III. Objectives of the Study
   IV. Hypothesis
   V. Research Methodology and Materials
   VI. Research Design
   VII. Data Source and Instruments
   VIII. Data Processing
   IX. Instruments of Analysis
   X. Limitation of the Study XI. Historical Profile of EU
   XII. Introduction to Major Trading Partners of the EU

2. India's Foreign Trade: Perspectives & Prospects
   I. Backdrop
   II. Theoretical Support
      a. The theory of Absolute Advantage
      b. The theory of Comparative Advantage
      c. Heckscher-Ohline Theory
      d. The National Competitive Advantage
         i) Factor Endowments
         ii) Demand Conditions
         iii) Related and Supporting Industries
         iv) Firm Strategy, Structure and Rivalry III. International Trade – A Historical Development
   IV. International Trade and Economic Development V. Foreign Trade and Economic Development in India
      a. The Reforms
      b. Trade Policy reforms
      c. Composition of India's Foreign Trade d. Composition of Imports e. Composition of Exports f. Direction of India's International trade
      g. Direction of India's Imports
      h. Direction of India's Exports
      i. India's Export Import Policy-A Paradigm Shift:
         i) Instruments of a trade policy iii) India's Recent Exim Policies-An Overview iv) Export Import Policy-1997-2002 vi) Foreign Trade Policy-2004-09:
            vii) Assessment of Major Features VI. Institutional Reforms
      a. Revamping Board of Trade
      b. Services Export Promotion Council
      c. Common Facility Centers
      d. Pragati Maidan
      e. Financial Aid VII. External Sector Reforms
   a. Decreasing Customs Revenues
   b. Shedding down of Import duties
   c. The Impact
   d. Scheme of Reforms in Import Tariff
   e. Export Tariff Policy
   f. Exchange Rate
   g. Current and Capital Account Convertibility
   h. Foreign Exchange Reserves
   i. Harmonised Classification
   j. From FERA to FEMA
   k. Income Tax Concessions

VIII. Measures of Openness

IX Assessment of External Sector Reforms
   a. Institutional Support for Indian Exports
      i) Export Trading Houses ii) Quality Recognition iii) Directorate General of Foreign Trade iv) DGCI&S
      v) Directorate General of Anti-dumping and Allied Duties vi) Indian Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO) vii) Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT) viii) EXIM Bank

X. International Agreements for promoting Foreign Trade
   a. UNCTAD
   b. WTO

XI. Export promotion Schemes
   a. Duty Neutralisation Scheme
   b. Duty Entitlement Pass Book Scheme
   c. Advance License Scheme
   d. Market Development Assistance Scheme

XII Critical Infrastructure balance Scheme

XIII States

XIV Summary

3. India-EU Trade Agreements: A Historical Background

   I Backdrop
   II Indo-EU Trade Relations
   III India and the 'Six' IV India and the Enlarged Union
      a) New Co-operation Agreement
      b) Co-operation Agreement on Partnership and Development
      c) Development Co-operation
      d) Trade
      e) Standards
      f) Textile and Clothing Agreement
      g) GSP Scheme of European Union V Union's Joint Collaborations and Foreign Investments in India IV The India-EU Strategic Partnership: The Joint Action Plan
      a) Economic Policy Dialogue and Co-operation
      b) Science and Technology
      c) Finance and monetary Affairs
      d) Environment
      e) Energy
      f) Business
   VI Developing Trade and Investment
   VI Summary
4. India’s Trade Relations with EU Member Countries: Analysis and interpretations

I. Backdrop

II. European-India Bilateral Trade
   a) India’s Trade with EU:
   b) A Widening trade Deficit Scenario
   c) European Union’s Share in India’s Trade d) India’s Share in EU’s Trade: An insignificant milieu
   e) Equalising Exports with imports from EU

III. Direction of India’s Foreign Trade with Major EU Member Countries: A Cross Country Analysis
   a) Trade with Great Britain
   b) Trade with Germany
   c) Trade with Belgium
   d) Trade with France
   e) Trade with Italy
   f) Trade with Netherlands
   g) Trade with Spain

IV. Overall View

V. Trade with other Member Countries of the EU

VI. India’s Major Product Exports to EU

VII. India’s Imports

VIII. New member Countries of EU
   a) Entry of 10 more countries to the EU: Their impact on India’s Foreign trade
      i) Impact on Exports ii) Impact on Imports

IX. Summary

5. Conclusions, Suggestions and Policy Implications

I. Directional Lackluster

II. Basic Premises

III. Conclusions
   a) Falling trade Scenario with EU b) India’s minuscule share in EU’s Foreign Trade
   c) India Widening trade deficit scenario with EU
   d) Trade with Major Trading Partners of EU
   e) Major Commodity Exports to EU
   f) Growth Patterns of Export Commodity Groups
   g) Commodity imports from the EU majors

IV. India-EU Trade Agreements: A complete structure for fostering trade

V. Suggestions and Policy Implications
   a) Triple-Pronged Strategy i. Firm-specific Strategy ii. Industry-specific Strategy iii. Country-specific Strategy

VI. Other Suggestions

VII. The Summing Up