ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This investigation was undertaken under the supervision of the late Dr. G. K. Abdullah, the then Reader in the Department of Education. The investigator owes a particular debt of gratitude to him for his valuable guidance and supervision.

After the sad demise of Dr. G. K. Abdullah, Dr. H. K. Parimoo, Reader in the Department of Education very kindly agreed to supervise this investigation. He took a personal interest in this study and rendered very valuable guidance for which the investigator is greatly indebted to him.

My very special thanks and gratitude are due to my beloved late wife Mrs. Sontosh Thakur Das, the Librarian of the Tyndale Biscoe School. Not only did she induce me to take up this project but she also provided a large number of primary sources. Unfortunately, she did not live long to see the completion of this report. My thanks are also due to my two sons - Sandeep and Navdeep - who after the demise of their mother not only encouraged me to complete this study but also helped me in my work.
I am also thankful to the Priest in charge of St. Mary's Church Library, Kotgarh, H.P.; Head of the Cambridge Brotherhood for the use of their Library in Delhi; Prof. O.Kaufflin, Director of the Christian Institute of Sikh Studies, Bathala for the use of the library and Archives; Mrs. Audappa, the Librarian of the United Theological College and the Indian Church History Archives, Bangalore; Principal of Bishop's College, Calcutta for the use of Archives; and the Librarian, William Carrey Library and Archives at Srinagar; Archivist of Jamu and Kashmir State Archives; the Archivist of Church Mission Archives, London for their help.

I am also thankful to Rev. J.K. Ray the Principal and the members of the staff of Tyndale Bible School for their guidance and interest in this study and Rev. T. Paljon for the use of all Saints' Church Library, Srinagar.

I am thankful to Dr. Agha Ashref Ali, Dean and head of the Department of Education and other members of the Faculty for their many valuable suggestions.

Lastly, my very special thanks to Mr. Douglas Fraser who very kindly edited and corrected the manuscripts and also to Mr. S.A. Sani for working late hours typing the manuscript.
