ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many talented people have contributed to the successful completion of this work and I would like to extend a word of thanks and appreciation to all of them. I feel pride to express my sincere thanks to my revered guide and mentor, Prof. Ajaz Rasool Mattoo for his constant encouragement and illuminative guidance from the beginning to the completion of this work. It is his scholarly insight, which shaped the content of this work. However, if there are any errors remaining, they are entirely mine.

The memory will linger on my mind for the highly inspiring guidance and affectionate attitude from my esteemed teacher Dr. M.A.Sahaf Head Deptt. of Management Studies, University of Kashmir who has been really a source of encouragement.

It is my pleasant duty to place on record my sincere thanks to other members of the faculty, Dr. S. Muheed Ahmad, Dr. Shabir A.Bhat, Dr. Farooq A. Khan, Dr.Iqbal, Mr. Ayub Shah (Placement Officer), Miss Farzana and Mr.Majid Qadri Department of Management Studies, University of Kashmir. Their deep insight into the problem with indefatigable fact finding zeal not only made it possible for me to benefit from their constructive criticism but also aroused in me a habit of clear thinking as a researcher. The dissertation, infact bears imprints of their balanced criticism and knowledgeable approach. Besides I owe my debts to other colleagues and friends who have helped me in course of this study by providing information. They have enlightened me on various aspects of the problem. They are too numerous to be listed individually.

Most indebted I am to all those respondents without whose cooperation it would have not been possible to complete the survey which forms the basis of the present study.

I would love to individually name all my teachers, friends and well wishers, who, at critical junctures, boosted my morale and encouraged me to complete the dissertation but I am afraid this limited space cannot permit me that, but I know the importance of their contribution and even without naming them here, I will always remember them with a sense of gratitude.
