Chapter One: Introduction

Background and Context 4
Conceptual Analysis: Isolationism and Political Development 10
Review of Literature 16
Objectives 19
Hypotheses 20
Scope and Method 23
Importance 23
Overview 25

Chapter Two: Isolationism: Inherited and Endured in Myanmar 29

Geographical Setting 30
The People 34
British Colonial State 38
Chapter Three: Constraints of Legitimacy and Stability

I. Ideological Syncretism and State of Instability
II. Political Turmoil under Parliamentary Democracy
III. Breakdown of Democracy
IV. Role of Military Leadership
V. Myanmar under Ne Win

Chapter Four: Crises of Isolationism and Liberalisation Process

I. Economic Crises and Liberalisation under Ne Win
II. Political Crises within Isolationism of Ne Win
III. Genesis of the Movement for Democracy
IV. Politics of Liberalisation
V. Economic Reforms
VI. Towards a Responsible Government

Chapter Five: Towards Neighbours

I. Myanmar in International Context
II. Myanmar and China
III. Myanmar and India
IV. Myanmar and Thailand

Chapter Six: Evaluation and Conclusion

I. Analysis and Evaluation

Glossary
Published Articles
