Acknowledgements

All praises are for Allah Almighty, the One, the Supreme and the Sovereign. May peace and blessings of Allah be on His last Messenger, Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be on him).

It is my privilege to express a word of thanks to my most esteemed supervisor Professor Hamidullah Marazi, for his constant guidance in the development of this Thesis. I feel unable to express my gratitude to my supervisor for his ceaseless efforts for supervising my study; in fact the work would not have come to completion without his scholarly and most disciplined supervision.

I express my gratitude to my mentor Professor Naseem Ahmad Shah, Head of the Department Islamic Studies, who has been a perennial source of inspiration for me in this research study.

I am highly indebted to Faculty members of the Department of Islamic Studies, namely Dr Abdul Rashid, Dr Manzoor Ahmad, Dr Jamil Ahmad, Dr Nazir Ahmad, Dr Mohammad Sultan. In fact this galaxy of higher academic grade exercised a hilarious influence upon my study and offered time and again suggestions and recurrent inputs that has resulted in the improvement of my study (work).

The Library and Administrative Staff of the Department of Islamic Studies deserve thanks whose co-operation was at a footing of equality with that of the Academic Staff. Mr Zahoor Ahmad, departmental Librarian, rendered a thorough support in keeping available the Library facilities beyond the normal working hours. I am thankful to all Staff members of Allama Iqbal Library and dynamic Librarian Reyaz Rufai and Deputy Librarian Dr Abdul Majeed Baba who have made available to me one and all facilities.

Besides, I am cordially thankful to Professor Abdul Salam Bhat, Department of Economics, who had left no stone unturned in providing time to time guidance in the finalization of my study.

Mr. Quaiser Aijaz was kind enough to help me in providing administrative help and encouragement. Thereafter it is Dr M.S Sumbli and Dr M. Y Baht, Deputy Registrars, who have been dreaming about the completion of this study and have provided thorough support. I thank all these officers.

I thank all well wishers prominent among these are Professor Younis Gilani, Er. Mehraj-Ud-Din, Director I.T. and Support System, Haji Ali Mohammad my esteemed brother, and revered Haji Mohammad Kamal.

One more gentle brother namely Mohammad Ishaq, Computer Operator, is also equally thank worthy for his enthusiasm.

It is worth mention here that I am also beholden to my family members who have sacrificed their time and allowed me to trespass on their time whenever the exigencies demanded.

Mohammad Abdullah
