Acknowledgement

At the outset, I offer my respectful pranams to H.H. Jagadguru Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswathi Swamigal, H.H. Jagadguru Sri Jayendra Saraswathi Swamigal and H.H. Jagadguru Sri Sankara Vijayendra Saraswathi Swamigal of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam whose blessings are the main guiding factors in this venture.

I express my gratitude to the Vice-Chancellor and other authorities of Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswathi Viswa Mahavidyalaya, Enathur, Kanchipuram for making the rules for undertaking research work flexible and enrolling as research scholar, a person like me who has strayed away from academic field for the best part of life in pursuit of insignificant things, collecting pebbles on the shores of the ocean full of gems, Ratna sagara.

It was my good fortune that Dr. V.S. Vishnu Potti, Professor and Head of the Dept of Sanskrit at that time to take up the additional responsibility of being my Guide. He continues to guide me even after he became the Registrar of the University. His commitment and keen interest in this study is the major reason for the completion of this study. I sincerely thank him for the expert guidance provided.
I also thank Dr. T.B. Siddalingaiah, Professor of Saiva Siddhanta (Retd), Madurai Kamaraj University, presently, Consultant, Tamil Virtual University, Chennai, who was my co-Guide. His deep knowledge of Philosophy, literature and traditions and his mastery over many languages has greatly helped in shaping my approach to and understanding the topic and fine tuned this thesis to perfection.

I also thank the faculty and staff of the Department of Sanskrit for the understanding and co-operation extended to me in this venture. My special thanks go to Sri. C. Karthikeyan and Dr. Sankaranarayanan of the department who have helped me in transliterating Halasya Mahatmyam from Grantha to Devanagari script. My sincere thanks go to the authorities of the international Library attached to the University for all the assistance rendered to me.

06-12-07

(B. Ramji)