ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to many helpful persons for their guidance, suggestions and assistance all through the research endeavor in Sandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University). I owe my greatest debt of gratitude to Dr.P.ARUMUGAM, Retired Head of the Department of Rural Development and Dr.P.SUMANGALA, H.O.D of Economics, Gandhigram Rural Institute, who have been the sheet anchor and joint supervisor respectively. They have been the sheet anchor all through this study evincing keen interest, sparing their valuable time and energy most generously. I venture to express my deepest sense of gratitude to both of them.

Grateful acknowledgements are due to the Director of co-operative sugar, Govt. of Tamil Nadu, for permitting me to visit and collect the data from all co-operative sugar mills in Tamil Nadu. In particular thanks are due to the special Officers, Managing Directors, Administrative Officers, Chief Accountants and various functionaries of Co-operative Sugar Mills without whose co-operation the study would not have been possible.

At this juncture I would like to place on record my grateful appreciation of the authorities in administration at Gandhigram Rural Institute, but for whose prompt action the present study would not have come through.

Invaluable assistance was received during the period of study from other faculty members of Gandhigram Rural Institute. Of them the most significant contribution was made by Dr.N.LALITHA, Reader in the Department of Rural Development and Dr.SEERANGARAJAW, S.G.Lecturer in RIM, Gandhigram Rural Institute.

I am thankful to Dr.N.D.MANI, Head of the Department of Rural Development for his help and constant encouragement.

I am also grateful to Dr.N.THILLAINAYAGAM, H.O.D. of RIM, Dr.S.RAMASWAMY, Reader in Economics, Dr.M.SEETHALAKSHMI, Reader in the Department of Agriculture and Mrs.MATHURA JOTHI, Assistant Librarian who inspired and helped me in this work.

I may sound formal if I try to thank my children, sisters, brothers and in laws but yet I need to place on record my heartfelt appreciation of their constant affectionate enquiries about the progress.

Especially I am beholden to my husband Dr.G.SUBLIRAMANIAM, who with a sense of commitment and determinations stood by me through thick and thin.
