Acknowledgement

All thanks and praise is to Allah (SWT) whose remembrance has made perseverance of intention and freedom righteous for me to exercise the best practises as recommended through our beloved Prophet (peace upon him) while working on this research. May this research proved useful to its purpose as well as adds much value to any current or future developments around its scope Insha’Allah.

May Allah bestow his rewards and mercy upon people for sharing their knowledge and experience on the basis of their intention either by choice (without any self-interest) or by chance (with self-interest), this research has been benefitted through both approaches. I like to acknowledge my family, relatives and friends who always have a place in my heart and prayers has subsequently earned more love and respect in return of the choices they have made prior and during the course of this research.

It is a moment of immense pleasure acknowledging the numerous contributions received through my Teachers and Staffs from Department of Economics (AMU) during the entire course of this research. It is a blessing to have such teaching and non-teaching staffs that were the source of guidance and assistance according to their respective role. Names are mentioned below purely in order of their contribution.

It was a learning experience to complete this research under Dr. Tarique (Associate Professor) whose supervision and productive feedbacks upon structuring the thesis has definitely added much value as well as improved the presentation of this research. I like to extend my regards to Prof. Abdul Wahab (Chairman) for his involvement in continuation and submission of this research. Here I also like to acknowledge Dr. Mohd. Asif (Associate Professor) for his directions received during the initial years of this research.

My sincere regards also goes to Mr Buniyad Ali (Seminar Librarian); Mr Aqueel (Clerk); and Shahzad bhai for their respective role in making department facilities available to this research. I like to acknowledge the proof reading by Mr Yusuf Ansari is a valuable contribution towards the completion of this research.

Acknowledging all of those who have become a source of sharing ideas and solution in any expected or unexpected situation witnessed at any stage of this research work.

Useful assistance received through various government departments is highly regarded. List below are in order of assistance received.
