Acknowledgement

I am prostrate to the Almighty Allah who is omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient and whose benign benediction gave me the required zeal for the completion of this work.

I am very thankful to Allah for giving me so loving, caring and supportive Parents who left no stone unturned to make me whatever I am today. I can’t forget the manners and etiquettes which I learnt from my Parents. Their sacrifice, unconditional love, constant support and encouragement have no match making me believe that parents are the most selfless and concerned humans on earth.

How a PhD student like me can say “Thank you” when there are so many people to thank at this juncture of life because all the PhD years of life involves a lot of people for guidance, support, criticism, sharing and experience from wide array of people during its progression. Yet, there are people who are the most directly responsible to produce this work without whom it couldn’t be a reality after Almighty. For this, I thank my supervisor, Dr. Ayesha Qamar firstly among all such people. I thank for all her scolding to improve my work, all her permissions to provide me freedom to think and work without inhibition, all her standing to troubleshoot various problems, all her praises to make me confident, all her criticism to keep me grounded….The most amazing aspect of my ma’am is she can read you even if you don’t utter anything in front of her absorbing your trouble or dilemma. Her approach of straightforwardness although at times, may make feel one bitter but later, certainly one realizes that she has been so for the betterment as the truth mostly is bitter. She has been my repository of solutions many problems I faced during my tenure of research. Belief in her research students is a hallmark of her greatness that infuses a sense of freedom required for free-thinking to excel in the field of research. And, this freedom further translates into trustful relation that makes one more responsible and accountable towards her actions. Her share of abstract reasoning, experience and constructive criticism broadened my knowledge, scientific temperament and experience not only in academic but also in my practical life. I thank Allah for providing me a lifetime experience to work under her powerful and inspirational guidance.

A grateful appreciation is extended to Prof. Irfan Ahmad Khan, Chairman, Department of Zoology, Aligarh Muslim University, for providing all necessary and possible facilities to carry out this work.

It gives me a great pleasure to express my sense of indebtedness to the respected faculties Prof. Iqbal Perwez, Prof. Waseem Ahmad, Prof Waseem. A. Faridi. I also offer my gratitude to all the technical and non-technical staffs of Department of Zoology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for their manifold help.

I am very grateful to my elder brother Dr. S.Z. Imam, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, University of Texas, USA for his support and providing the chemicals and gift samples to carry out my present work. Thanks are also due to my elder cousin Dr. Syed Naqui Kazim Assistant Professor, Centre for Interdisciplinary Biotechnology Unit, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, for his constant support and cooperation in every possible means and keeping my enthusiasm alive.

I am immensely thankful and deeply indebted to Mrs. Nasreen Hussain for cooperating in every possible means by providing the available seminar facilities.

I am also very thankful to Dr. Imrana Naseem Department of Biochemistry, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for her help in providing all necessary and possible facilities to carry out the comet assay technique. Thanks are also due to Electron Microscopy facilities, AIIMS, New Delhi for their cooperation and help.
During my stay in the department, I heartily felt that it is just like a family where teachers are like guardians who try their best efforts to bring out the best in us while the seniors are like elder siblings who help or admonish wherever and whenever we get tentative. My acknowledgment would be incomplete if I don’t offer my special thanks to my seniors whose time to time advices and precautions saved me from making many mistakes during my research work and life in the department.

I am intensely grateful and would like to show my heartiest gratitude and indebtedness to my lab colleague and my younger sister Mrs. Iram Khan whose support and help as a friend is more valuable for me in completing my thesis work. Her time to time moral support, meaningful suggestions and help is deeply acknowledged. Ms. Priyanka Jacob, Mr. Ashiq Hussain Mir and Mr. Dipak Kumar helped me a lot in my pursuit of science, for which I am thankful to them.

I owe whole hearted thanks to my colleagues Mr. Waseem Ahmad, Mr. Rehan Zaheer, Mr. Humayoon Akhtar Khan, Mr. Hirdesh Kumar, Mr. Kaish Miyan, Ms Monika Rani for their encouragement and co-operation during various phases of my research stints.

My profound thanks are also due to my best friend Mr. Mohammad Waseem for his affection and all time help. Heartiest and special thanks goes to my friend like younger brother Mr. Abdul Hannan Khan and Mr. Yasir Akhtar Khan for their unconditional support and care during my studies and stay in Aligarh. I am intensely grateful to Dr. Iftekhar Hasan and Dr. Asrar Ahmad for their time to time help and meaningful suggestions. I have no words for these people who have been always stood by my side in all periods of my research work.

No words can adequately express all that my parents and family has done for me. They have always been a source of inspiration, for me and their prayers, affection and love beyond the academic scene, made me reach this stage. I am also thankful to my brothers Dr. Syed Zohair Imam, Dr. Syed Jafar Mehdi, Mr. Syed Ejaz Hussain, Mr. Syed Jamshed Hassan, Mr. Syed Ather Iqbal, Dr. Syed Naqui Kazim, Mr. Syed Mohammad Kazim, Mr. Syed Ali kazim, Mr. Syed Hassan Kazim and sisters Ms. Nausheen Fatima, Ms. Nazneen Fatima, Ms. Lyana Snow Ms. Tazeen Fatima, Ms. Iram Khan, Ms. Tabassum Rehmat and Ms. Shahista Khan and all my cousin brothers and sisters for their support, encouragement and confidence which motivated me to achieve many goals in my life. I render my heartfelt thanks to my fiancée Ms. Kahkashan Manzar for her encouragement and moral support.

A grateful appreciation is also extended to my nieces Ms. Qudsia Hussain, Ms. Abbassi Hassan, Ms. Firdaus A. Snow, Ms. Zainab Iqbal, Ms. Zehra Iqbal and my nephews Mr. Syed Sarim Hussain, Mr. Syed Minhhaal Hussain and Mr. Syed Rasikh Imam for their unconditional love that boosts me throughout my research and studies.

The whole non-teaching staff of our department including Zahir bhai, Dilshaad bhai, Meraj Bhai, Amzad Bhai, Irfan Bhai, Khaliq Bhai, Zahid Bhai, Zubair bhai, Allah Noor bhai, Nadeem Bhai, Wafat bhai, Suresh Bhai have been very kind and helpful to me whenever I needed them. Lastly, my utmost thanks to all those people whom I could not mentioned here by their names for their faith in me.

Thanks are also due to Department of Zoology, Dean Office for the assistance as well as University Grants Commission, New Delhi for the financial assistance in the form of scholarship.
