Acknowledgements

I wholeheartedly and sincerely express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide and supervisor Dr. P. Arumukham, Professor and Head (Retd.), Department of Rural Development, Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University), Gandhigram, for his constant and valuable guidance in making this research work possible. It is virtually my fortune that I had the opportunity to work under him. In fact he has created in me a lifelong impression by his unstinted kindness, affectionate guidance and noble generosity.

I owe my humble gratitude to Dr. R. Sreerangarajan, Reader, Department of Rural Industries and Management, Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University), Gandhigram, who has been always kind enough to spare time to me to give the benefit of his research experience in preparing the thesis.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. N.D. Mani, The Head, Department of Rural Development, Gandhigram Rural Institute, Gandhigram, for his encouragement in completing this thesis.

I am very thankful to Dr. N. Lalitha, Reader in Rural Development, Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University), Gandhigram. In spite of her tight academic schedule and compelling preoccupations, she thoroughly read the draft copy of the thesis and contributed valuable suggestions in finalising the thesis.
I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. N. Thillainayagam, Professor and Head, Dr. N. Meenakshisundaram, Professor, Dr. N. Kannan Nair, Retired Reader, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Reader, Sri K. Raja alias Pranmalai, Lecturer, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Bakery Unit In-charge, Sri S. Murugesan and other staff of the Department of Rural Industries and Management, Gandhigram Rural Institute, Deemed University, Gandhigram for their help and constant encouragement in completing the thesis.

I wish to record my thanks to the Director, Directorate of Handlooms and Textiles and Sri N. Rajendran, Ex-Joint Director, Department of Handlooms, Government of Tamilnadu for granting me permission to collect the data from the sample co-operative spinning mills in Tamilnadu.

I am also thankful to the Managing Directors, Secretaries, Administrative Officers, Managers, Accountants and other staff of the sample co-operative spinning mills who extended to me their helping hand in the tedious task of collecting data which form the basis for this research work.

It is my duty to thank the members of the Syndicate and Senate, the authorities of the Institute who provided me an opportunity to do this research.
I express my sincere thanks to the then Vice-Chancellor Dr. N. Markandan and the present Vice-Chancellor Dr. G. Pankajam of GRI for providing me the infrastructure and an opportunity to submit this thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. V. Kulandaisamy, the then Registrar, GRI and Dr. P. Kanniappan, Registrar, GRI, Gandhigram, for their encouragement and help to submit this thesis.

I owe my humble gratitude to Sri S. Chandrasekar, the then Special Accounts Officer, GRI and to Sri N. Karunakaran, IA & AS, Finance Officer, GRI, Gandhigram, who helped me a lot and encouraged me in completing this thesis and thank them one and all.

I express my thanks to Mr. J. Abraham, Asst. Librarian, Mrs. S. Mathurajothi, Asst. Librarian and other staff in Institute Library for their help in completing this thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to my colleagues and other friends for their help and encouragement in my study.

Finally I am very grateful to my family members also for their constant encouragement, sacrifice and co-operation to complete the thesis successfully.
