PREFACE

Section 81 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand A.D. 1997 stipulates that a law on national education shall be enacted to develop the teaching profession. Upon promulgation of the National Education Act A.D. 2001, Section 53 of this National Education Act provides that an organization for the teaching, educational institution administration and education administration professions shall be established as an independent body administered by a professional council under the supervision of the Ministry. Such organization shall have the powers and duties to set professional standards; issue and revoke professional licenses; monitor the compliance with such professional standards and code of ethics; and develop the teaching, educational institution administration and education administration professions. Furthermore, Section 73 of the Act also stipulates that the Teachers Act A.D. 1945 shall be revised and updated to be consistent with the essence of said law. A draft law governing the teachers and educational personnel council was completed in 1999 and the Teachers and Educational Personnel Council Act A.D. 2003 was promulgated with effect as from June 12, 2003.

The essence of this Teachers and Educational Personnel Council Act A.D. 2003 is to amend the Teachers Act A.D. 1945 to serve as the law governing a teachers and educational personnel council. The significance of this Act is to chronicle the history of and intent in establishing the Teachers Council of Thailand to serve as a professional teaching council. Towards this end, two organizations in relation to the teaching profession will be established, namely, the teachers and educational personnel council, called the Teachers Council of Thailand, a legal entity under the supervision of the Ministry of Education, with the powers and duties to control and maintain professional standards of teachers and educational personnel; and the Office of the Committee for Promotion of the Benefits and Welfare of Teachers and Educational Personnel, a legal entity under the supervision of the Ministry of Education, subject to the administration of the Committee for Promotion of the Benefits and Welfare of Teachers and Educational Personnel, with the powers and duties to promote benefits and welfare as well as support the education management by the Ministry of Education.

The Secretariat Office of the Teachers Council of Thailand, as the governing authority, hereby publishes the provisions of the Teachers and Educational Personnel Council Act A.D. 2003 for distribution to teachers, educational personnel and related parties for the purposes of education and comprehension as well as appropriate application in accordance with the intent of this Act. Secretariat Office of the Teachers Council of Thailand June 2003

TEACHERS AND EDUCATION PERSONNEL ACT A.D. 2003

Section 5 The practice of the Profession shall require Licenses under this Act.

Section 6 The Minister of Education shall govern the execution of this Act and have the power to issue ministerial regulations, rules and notifications to ensure compliance with this Act, including the authority to interpret and make final decisions on any issues relating to performance, the powers and duties of authorized persons or agencies as stipulated in the Transitory Provisions of this Act.

Such ministerial regulations, rules and notifications shall come into effect upon their publication in the Government Gazette.

CHAPTER 1

TEACHERS AND EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL COUNCIL

PART 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 7 A teachers and educational personnel council shall be established and shall be called the “Teachers Council of Thailand”, having such objectives, powers and duties as provided for in this Act, and shall be a legal entity under the supervision of the Ministry of Education.

Section 8 The objectives of the Teachers Council of Thailand shall be as follows:
(1) To determine Professional standards, issue and revoke Licenses, supervise and monitor the compliance with the Professional standards and code of ethics, including Professional development;

(2) To determine Professional development plans and policies;

(3) To coordinate the promotion of education and research relating to the practice of the Profession.

Section 9 The Teachers Council of Thailand shall have the powers and duties as follows:

(1) To determine Professional standards and code of ethics;

(2) To supervise the conduct and performance of Professional Educators to ensure compliance with the Professional standards and code of ethics;

(3) To issue Licenses to applicants to practice the Profession;

(4) To suspend or revoke Licenses;

(5) To support the Professional development and promotion in line with the Professional standards and code of ethics;

(6) To promote, support, commend and uphold the honor of the Professional Educators;

(7) To certify degrees, diplomas or certificates of various institutions in accordance with the Professional standards;

(8) To certify Professional knowledge and experience, including expertise in the practice of the Profession;

(9) To promote education and research relating to the practice of the Profession;

(10) To represent Professional Educators in Thailand;

(11) To issue regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand governing:

(a) the designation of prohibited characteristics pursuant to Section 13;

(b) the issuance, term, suspension and revocation of Licenses, as well as certification of Professional knowledge, experience and expertise in the practice of the Profession;

(c) the criteria and procedures for License application;

(d) the qualifications and prohibited characteristics of License applicants;

(e) Professional code of ethics, as well as misconduct which may bring dishonor upon the Profession;

(f) Professional standards;

(g) the procedures for recruitment, selection, election and appointment of the Teachers Council of Thailand Board and the Professional Standards Committee;

(h) the composition, criteria and procedures for selection of a recruitment committee;

(i) the criteria and procedures for recruitment of the Secretary General of the Teachers Council of Thailand;

(j) any act stipulated by this Act;

(12) To provide consultation or recommendation to the Council of Ministers regarding policies or problems relating to Professional development;

Any applicant for License, applicant for renewal of License or applicant for substitute License, whose application is rejected by the Professional Standards Committee under paragraph one may appeal such order with the Teachers Council of Thailand Board within thirty days from the date of receipt of notice of such rejection, which in the interim shall not prevent the applicant from continuing to practice the licensed Profession, until the Teachers Council of Thailand Board has given its final decision.

Section 46 No one shall act in any manner so as to cause others to believe that he or she is entitled or qualified to practice the Profession without a License from the Teachers Council of Thailand. No Educational Institutions shall employ those without Licenses to practice the licensed Profession in their Educational Institutions, except with permission of the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Section 47 Those holding Licenses shall practice the Profession subject to the restrictions and conditions in accordance with the regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Section 48 Those holding Licenses shall conduct themselves in accordance with the Professional standards and code of ethics as stipulated in the regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Section 49 Regulations on Professional standards shall be established to comprise:

(1) Standards of Professional knowledge and experience;

(2) Standards of performance;

(3) Standards of conduct.
The determination of Professional practice quality standards under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand, provided that such quality standards of License holders shall be evaluated on a continual basis to ensure the retention of knowledge, capabilities and expertise at the Professional practice quality standards in accordance with the criteria and procedures as stipulated by the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Section 50 Standards of conduct shall be in the form of regulations governing Professional code of ethics, comprising:

1. Personal ethics;
2. Professional code of ethics;
3. Client centered ethics;
4. Collegial ethics;
5. Societal ethics.

The formulation of a model code of Professional ethics under paragraph one shall be in accordance with the regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Section 51 Any person who sustains injury arising from any violation of the Professional code of ethics by a License holder is entitled to file an accusation with the Teachers Council of Thailand against such License holder.

Members of the Teachers Council of Thailand Board, the Professional Standards Committee or other persons are entitled to file a denunciation with the Teachers Council of Thailand against those practicing the Profession for violations of the Professional code of ethics.

The right to file an accusation under paragraph one or the right to file a denunciation under paragraph two must be exercised within one year from the date the injured party or the denunciator became aware of the Professional code of ethics violation and the identity of the violator.

Withdrawal of an accusation or denunciation previously submitted shall not cease any proceedings undertaken in accordance with this Act.
Section 52 Upon receipt by the Teachers Council of Thailand of such accusation or denunciation under Section 51, the Secretary General of the Teachers Council of Thailand shall without delay submit such matter to the Professional Standards Committee.

Section 53 The Chairperson of the Professional Standards Committee shall give written notice of such accusation or denunciation and delivery of a copy of a statement of accusation or denunciation, to the accused or denounced License holder at least fifteen days prior to commencement of any hearing.

The accused or denounced party is entitled to submit clarification or present evidence to the Professional Standards Committee or subcommittee within fifteen days from the date of receipt of notice from the Chairperson of the Professional Standards Committee or within such time as stipulated by the Professional Standards Committee.

Section 54 The Professional Standards Committee shall have the authority to make any of the following final decisions:

(1) Dismissal of the charge;

(2) Warning;

(3) Probation;

(4) Suspension of the License for an appropriate term not to exceed five years;

(5) Revocation of the License.

Section 55 License holders against whom the Professional Standards Committee issues final decisions pursuant to Section 54 (2), (3), (4) or (5) may appeal such decisions with the Teachers Council of Thailand Board within thirty days from the date of receipt of such decisions.

Appeals shall comply with the criteria and procedures as stipulated in the regulations of the Teachers Council of Thailand.

Final decisions of the Teachers Council of Thailand Board shall be in the form of Teachers Council of Thailand orders, indicating the reasoning upon which the final decisions are based.

Section 56 Those whose Licenses are suspended shall not be allowed to practice the licensed Profession or misrepresent themselves by any means so as to cause others to believe that they are entitled or qualified to practice the licensed Profession from the date such License holders are informed of the suspension orders.

Section 57 Those whose Licenses are revoked shall not be allowed to reapply for a License until a lapse of five years from the date of such revocation.

Remarks: The rationale for promulgation of this Act is that teachers, educational institution administrators, education administrators and educational personnel play major roles in national education management. It is, therefore, essential for these persons to be highly knowledgeable, capable and skilled in practicing the profession, adhere to morals and ethics as well as to comply with the professional code of ethics. They also should meet the quality and standards as appropriate to an honorable profession; hence this Act has been enacted with an aim:

1. To develop the teaching profession pursuant to Section 81 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand A.D. 1997 and to promote professional standards of teachers and educational personnel pursuant to Section 9 (4) of the National Education Act A.D. 2001;
2. To convert such agencies within the Ministry of Education pursuant to the Teachers Act A.D. 1945 to be teachers professional organizations pursuant to Section 53 of the National Education Act A.D. 2001 and in compliance with Section 73, namely:
   2.1 A teachers and educational personnel council, called the “Teachers Council of Thailand” which shall have the powers and duties to set professional standards, issue and revoke licenses to practice the profession, monitor and supervise the compliance with professional standards and code of ethics, and professional development;
2.2 The Office of the Committee for Promotion of the Benefits and Welfare of Teachers and Educational Personnel which shall have the powers and duties to promote benefits and welfare, security of professional educators and educational practitioners, including the promotion and support of education management by the Ministry of Education;

3. To chronicle the history of and intent in establishing the Teachers Council of Thailand to serve as a professional teaching council.
