I am extremely thankful to all the non-teaching staff of the department for their help. Thanks are due to Mr. Qureshi for their cooperation and help during my work.
I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Patel, Network Computers for giving a shape to this task. Thanks are also due to Mr. MINU, Adinath Computers for incorporating colours to my thesis.

I wish to pay my regards to Mrs. Mishra aunti, Sanu and Monu for providing homely atmosphere.

I express my respect and profound love to my parents and my brothers Nitin and Golu for showering me the kind affection. I am indebted to them and look forward to convert their effort and dreams into practical reality.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to my husband Mr. SUSHIL KASHAW for his invaluable suggestions, constructive criticisms and patient listening to my problems throughout the research work. His persistent involvement and his constant efforts to inculcate in me a logical and truthful approach towards research has helped to confer a proper direction and shape to my research work. I owe profound love to my son CANDY who smilingly embraced the obvious suffering. Heartful regards to my father-in-law & mother-in-law and all family members for love, care and affection.

Always remember the almighty for making every thing worthwhile.

VARSHA KASHAW
