I have great pleasure in recording here my profound indebtedness to Dr. B.K. Srivastava, M.Sc., D. Phil. (Alld.), F.E.S.I., F.R.E.S. (Lond.), F.A.Z., Professor of Zoology and Head of the Department, Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (formerly known as University of Saugar) for his guidance and deep interest in the present work and reading through my manuscript. It was both a great advantage and a privilege for me to have carried out this work under his supervision.

I am equally grateful to Dr. P.K. Shrivastava, M.Sc., Ph.D., Professor of Anthropology and Head of the Department, Doctor Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (formerly known as University of Saugar) for supervising the present research work, for his critical but constructive suggestions, constant encouragement and for providing the necessary facilities throughout the course of the present work.

I am thankful to Dr. M.K. Namdeo, B.V.Sc., Assistant Director, Cattle Breeding Farm, Ratona, Sagar, and to Dr. B.K. Dubey, B.V.Sc., Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Central Semen Station, Sagar for making me available blood samples of different animals investigated.

My sincere thanks are also due to Shri J.G. Asthana, Reader in Pharmacy, U.T.D. Sagar for providing accommodation and other necessary facilities in his laboratory to make T.L.C. analysis of lectins.

I am greatly indebted to my late brother, Shri Sanjay Hardenia whose inspiration guided us to undertake these studies together. I record here with sad heart that he left for his heavenly abode during the course of the present work, leaving me alone to fulfil his desire.

(Ku. Archana Hardenia).
