ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. S. Srikantaswamy, Associate Professor, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, Manasagangotri, Mysore. I am privileged to have him as my guide and for always supporting me during my research, for numerous conversations, ideas, valuable criticism and constructive comments. I am indebted to him for numerous reasons and for having provided me the opportunity to start and complete my study, at the Department of Studies in Environmental Science, during the years 2007-2011.

I owe special thanks to Dr. A. G. Devi Prasad, Chairman, Department of Studies in Environmental Science and Prof. S. L. Belagali, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, University of Mysore, for providing all necessary support and facility to carry out the work.

My humble thanks to Mr. H. S. Ravi Shankar, Lecturer, Mysore, who emotionally supported me during my study period.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to Dr. K. Lenin Babu and Dr. S. Manasi, Assistant Professors, from the Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC), Bangalore, who, through the STRIVER project greatly assisted me. My special thanks go to Mr. Umesh Babu M.S., my classmate and colleague at ISEC, and Mrs. Latha N. who helped me with STRIVER data. I profusely thank Miss. Savitha B. C. for her skills in data analysis and support. I am indebted to her for her valuable help.

I thank Dr. A. N. Yellappa Reddy, Rtd. IFS Officer, Dr. David Barton, Research Scientist, Norwegian Institute for Water Research (NIVA), Norway, Dr. Phalaksha, Research Scientist, Fisheries College, Mr. A. M. Annaih, Administrator, CADA, Shimoga, Mr. Harish Bhat, IISc, Bangalore, Mr. R.N. Vijay Kumar, Chief Engineer, WRDO, Bangalore, Mr. Prashanth, Mr. Chandrashekar and Mr. Jitendra, Engineers, Water Resource department, for their supporting and important role during my studies.

I would gratefully acknowledge my thanks to my colleagues at Arghyam Foundation, Bangalore, Mr. Vijay Krishna, Mr. Amitanshu Acharya, Dr. Parameshwarappa, Mr. Nagasreenivas, Mohan Sundaram and Niteen Shastri. I greatly thank all of them for their contributions. It has been such a pleasure to have their successful co-operation and to be a part of interesting conversations, during my research.

I would also like to acknowledge Dr. M. Dinesh Kumar, Director, IRAP, Hyderabad and Prof. M. V. Sivamohan, IRAP, Hyderabad with whom I worked for about two years at Hyderabad. Their moral support during the period of my research is appreciated.

I express my warm thanks to Dr. Regina Sharmila Dass, Eco-agri Research Foundation, Prof. Bela Zutshi, Department of Zoology and Prof. Abdul Khayum, Department of Environmental Science, Bangalore University for their support and valuable inputs for plankton identification.
Water Quality analysis would not have been possible if not for the help of Mrs. Pavithra Kamesh, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, Bangalore. I appreciate her dedication for helping me in my endeavour. My thanks also go to Mr. Durgesh, Research Scholar, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, Bangalore, for his help in analyzing water quality parameters. I profusely thank Mr. Kumar M. and Mr. Vijay Krishna, Research Scholars, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, Bangalore University for providing suitable literature.

I express my warm thanks to my elder brother and friend; Mr. Vijaya Kumar B. N., Mr. Nandagopal P. and Mr. Sudarshan P. have constantly helped me with field visits. I thank them for their valuable inputs and great company.

GIS related works became possible due to the help of Mrs. Binutha R., NRSA, Hyderabad and Mr. Krishnamurthy. My heartfelt thanks to them.

My immense thanks go to Mr. H. M. Dwarakesh, Dr. Seenappa, Dr. M. Shivakumar, Mr. B. T. Naveen Kumar, Mr. Girish and Mr. B. S. Kiran Kumar, Fisheries department, for all matters related to fisheries and literature.

Dr. Siddaramu and Mr. Raghunandan K. L. have been of thorough help, in helping me with the necessary literature pertaining to my area of research. My profuse thanks to them too.

I would gratefully acknowledge my thanks to my research colleagues Mrs. Shakunthala Bai, Mr. Shivakumar, Mr. Vivek, Dr. Siamok Gholami and Mr. Madhukar, Department of Studies in Environmental Science, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore. I greatly thank all of them for their contributions. It has been such a pleasure to have their successful co-operation and to be a part of interesting conversations, during the course of my research.

My dearest thanks go to my grandmothers, Mrs. Venkateshamma and Mrs. Subbamma, for their endless prayers and moral support throughout my studies. Words will not suffice to express my gratitude to them.

My heartfelt thanks to my dearest sister Mrs. A. R. Poornima and brother-in-law, Mr. A. T. Ramachandra, who have always been there for me.

None of this would have been possible without the endurance of my supporting parents Mrs. G. K. Dhanalakshmi and Mr. B. P. Krishnegowda, I fall short of words to adequately thank them, for the role they have played in my academic and personal life.

I finally thank one and all who played a part in the successful completion of my thesis.
