ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, my utmost gratitude to Dr. Kaushik C. Raval, University School of Law, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad, my guide of this research work. I am indebted to him for his unending support and encouragement. He has been my motivational force as I hurdle all the obstacles in the completion of this research work. This research is an outcome of many discussions carried out with Dr. Raval on research topic from the initial to the final level enabled me to develop an understanding of the subject. His buoyant attitude, encouraging words, time to time progress report and taking time out to do field visits with me has helped me garnering my gumptions to successfully complete this research work of high magnitude. I tirelessly thank Dr. Raval with the bottom of my heart.

This thesis would not have been possible without the support of my parents, Justice (Retd.) N.N.Mathur, and Dr. (Mrs.) Anand Mathur. Their enduring support and love is what encourages me to move towards achieving goals in life. I am indebted to my parents and my uncle Justice Govind Mathur, who introduced me to the world of legal discussions and understanding at a very early age. This resulted in effortless and natural flair for the subject.

I would like to give special thanks to my in laws, Mr. M.M. Mehta & Mrs. Madhu Mehta, who are the most wonderful parents in the world. I sincerely, want to thank them both for their undying love and blessings. I am grateful to almighty for blessing me with such wonderful parents.

I would also like to thank my genius nephew Medhansh, my sister Charu and my brother in law Milind Kumar, who have always shown keen interest in my academic development and are also my biggest motivating strength.

In carrying out any research the family of the researcher undergoes a great deal of sacrifice and neglect. I would like to thank and apologies at the same time to my beautiful loving 4 years old daughter, Aahana for ignoring her at times to complete this uphill job of writing thesis. Even at this tender age she ushered me with love and gave strength to go on. This seems impossible without the unstringing support of my husband, Abhishek Mehta, who is in true sense, a soul-mate. He is a friend, Philosopher and guide.

I am also greatly thankful to Dr.Ashish Barua, NLU Jodhpur for his time, patience and encouraging predictions. My sincere gratitude to Sh.Arun Gaur & Sh.Bharat Koshti, who with great patience and skill did an outstanding job in editing my research work and giving it a presentable shape.

Lastly, I offer my regards and blessings to all of those who supported me in any respect during the completion of my research work especially my childhood friend Amoli and Gauri didi, Radha didi.

Above all of us I would like to thank the omnipresent God, for answering my prayers for giving me the strength to plod on despite all the odds.

“tamana yahi hai ki jab tak jiyon, Chalu ya firon ya ki mehnat karon, padhu ya likho mooh se bolon kalaam, na baan aaye mujh se koi aisa kaam, jo marzi ke teri kuch muafik na ho, raza ke teri kuch mukhalif jo ho!!”
