Thanks to all the staff of Department of Physics, Dr. H. S. Gour University, Sagar (M.P.) for their cooperation in all respects.

There are certain people to whom words are not sufficient to express feeling for them. It is mere formality because what they have done for me is inexplicable. Among such person are adorable and most respectful my respected parents Smt. Kavita and Shri C.K. Shrivastava. I would like to give my special thanks to my in law Smt. Nirmala and Dr. H.K. Khare whose patient love and blessings enabled me to complete the work. All my relatives, particularly my respected mamaji Naresh kumar Verma has been constantly encouraging me to stick to the job with patience.

Specially I am really very indebted to my husband Dr. Nirdesh Khare who showed me a great will of strength which has been inspiration to me.

Special thanks to little kid Prisha for her support and patience and who will no doubt see me slightly more often now.

Lastly, but not the least thanks to all the persons who are unnamed and who directly or indirectly provided support and information.
