Acknowledgement

First of all I am very much grateful to God, who has made me a man. He has given me ability, so I have completed my studies not only completed B.A., M.A in Economics. As a grace of God I joined as a Lecturer in Economics.

I am also thankful to God because now I am a P.G. Teacher in Economics since 1999 and Programmer officer of N.S.S. since Last 12 Years. I have served Four years for the post of in charge Principle of Mahila Arts and Commerce College – Veraval.

I have an opportunity to all those, who hunted my heart by giving warm co-operation in every respect I shall never forget their kind approach toward me, because, in absence of them the present Ph.D. study would not have been started even or completed also.

It is my piece of luck that I got opportunity to take up this task for research in which I am extremely ambitious. With my great efforts the Present study is related directly to the “Indian Economics” which is mainly based on Farming Economics. So the Farmer is “Jagat no Tat”. With the relation to the Farmer, Sugar Farming and Sugar Productive Factories are also related with this study. I have seen the problems of the Sugarcane Farmers, The social and economic effect of their farming directly related to their lives. I have studded with the deep information about them and their work, their reality and all these matters in the new form I have submitted in this study.

The real credit goes to Shri A.A. Patel The Principal of College of Commerce and Shri. He encouraged me to study and made my path very easy by giving valuable guidance with profound regards, I wish my special indebtedness to him.

I am also very much grateful to Shri Samirbhai Maru the Managing Trusty of Mahila Arts and Commerce College - Veraval and Principal Dr. Bandhiya Saheb, Prof. Sanjay Bhut, Prof. Nilaben Barad, Prof. K.R. Ram, Dr. Rakesh Joshi, Dr. Mahesh Joshi and all my colleague professors, librarians, clerks and peons.

I owe my deep gratitude to Shri Jasubhai Barad the Chairman of Talala Sugar Factory and their employs, I also thankful to Shri Natubhai Vala the Chairman of Bileshwar Khand Mandli and my dear respondents who have helped me and co-operated me in doing this huge difficult work and provided me data in time.
It is rather difficult to adequately express gratitude to my respectable Guide Dr Jayendrabhai J. Bhatt, Dean of Kadi Sarvy Vishva Vidhalyay, Commerce Faculty, Kadi. who suggested not only the topic but also inspired me time to time. His family members also gave me full co-operation.

In my family my mother and father always gives great blessing, so I could achieve this glorious progress. My son Dhruv and Daughter Nikita have given me patronize time to time. I would like to express my heartiest pleasure to my wife Smita for her inexhaustible patience throughout the time and therefore I have completed the Ph.D. The all prestige goes to her account.

I cannot forget at this stage, the valuable contributions of my dear friend, philosopher and Guide Dr. Anant M. Vasani who is given me warmly support in each and every step of my Research..

The Investigator expresses a deep sense of gratitude towards Prof. Dr. Pravinaben Pandya, Principal Dr. Dilipbhai Vajani, Dr. Sanjay Bhayani, Dr. Kishor Barad, Dr. Ambalal Ajmera, Principal L. M. Patidar, Shri Ketan Bhatt and colleague professors, and all colleges and friend.

I should not forget Computer operator Mr. Dilip Vaghadia who has managed the whole theses with minor observation with his deep feelings from his heart.

In the end I am very much thankful to the writers, authors of Books, Magazines, Journals, Papers, Dissertation, Thesis and other review Literatures. Thus any publication, thesis or dissertation is a result of combination of effort and assistance of many well-wishers to the investigator, so last but not the least I feel highly indebted t these person who gave me support directly or indirectly in this research.

Place : Veraval
Date : 20-04-14

J.S. Vala
Associate Professor
MAHILA ARTS & COMMERCE COLLEGE
VERAVAL