A WORD OF GRATITUDE

I would like to express my sincerest sense of gratitude to my research guide Dr. N. K. Indrayan, Professor and Head, Law Department, Saurashtra University, Rajkot for his guidance, supervision and constructive suggestions during the tenure of my research.

He has provided immense depth in the subject and changed the perspective of my research. At the time of confusions and difficulties during research work, his clear pertinent advice became helpful in shaping the entire work. It is indeed difficult to find appropriate words to express my sense of gratitude for his esteemed inspiration, generosity and fatherly affection. I am indebted to him for his great inspiration in completion of this research work.
