ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to sincerely acknowledge the following for their valuable help during my research work:

➢ Prof. B. M. Bhanage for his belief in me, constant support, advice and crucial contribution towards this research work.

➢ Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), India and University Grants Commission (UGC), India for providing financial assistance.

➢ SAIF, Indian Institute of Technology Bombay, for providing Instrumental facility for analysis.

My gratitude is also for those whose names cannot be mentioned one by one here but have helped me in different ways and without them this research would not be successful.

Thanks all,

Mayur Vinodrao Khidekar
