I would like to express my deepest appreciation to my Research Guide, Dr. Ramola B. Joseph, who has the attitude and the substance of a genius: she continually and convincingly conveyed a spirit of adventure with regard to research and without her guidance and persistent help this doctoral thesis would not have been possible.

I am deeply indebted to Rev. Sr. Teresa (Dr. Helan A.P), Principal, St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam. The joy and enthusiasm she has for research endeavours was contagious and motivational for me, even during tough times in the doctoral pursuit. I thank wholeheartedly Dr. Claramma Thomas, Head, Department of Sociology (Retd.), for her encouragement and suggestions.

I remember with gratitude the unconditional love and support of my parents which always inspired me to sincerely pursue my work with a positive attitude. Thank you, mom and dad. I must express my very profound gratitude to my husband, M.G. Reghu, and my loving son, Aadarsh, for providing me with unfailing support and continuous encouragement throughout my years of study and through the process of researching and writing this dissertation. This accomplishment would not have been possible without them. Thank you.

I acknowledge my heartfelt appreciation to my brother Saj Janin J., and especially to my sister-in-law, Raji Saj, for all her contributions of time, ideas, and technical skills in computer to make my Ph.D. experience creative and stimulating.

My Ph.D work was made enjoyable in large part due to the many friends who are part of my life. I am especially grateful to Smt. Jessy John, Smt. Elizabeth Abraham, Dr. Swathy Varma P.R and Smt. Anupa Jacob for all their love, support and encouragement in my humble endeavour.

Above all, I thank God Almighty for the relentless grace showered upon me without which this work would never have materialised.
