“Taken out of context, I must seem so strange…” –Ani DiFranco, Fire Door

While writing a research work is one of the most herculean and isolating task. During my exploration of Social Networking Sites work I can say that, I was never left aloof. I had the continuous support and encouragement of guide, professors, family, friends, colleagues, and mentors.

I am happy to place on record my gratitude towards numerous persons who helped me to make this work possible.

No words to express my deep sense of gratitude I owe to Dr. G. Balasubramania Raja, Reader, Department of Journalism Communication, M.S. University, Tirunelveli, for his generous assistance, constant supervision and patient forbearance to the problems and difficulties while understanding the present study. Without his boundless support and care, my mission would have been much more arduous. I thank him for introducing me to the subject and to its analytical insights.

I am grateful to the Periyar University, Salem for providing me an opportunity to pursue my Doctoral Degree.

I would like to show my profound gratitude to Dr. S Nandakumar Reader and co-guide of this research work. This thesis would not have been possible without his support and constant encouragement.

I sincerely thank Dr. V. Natarajan, Professor and Head, Dr. R. Subramani, Dr. M. Anuradha and Mr. Maa. Tamizhpparithi, Assistant Professor Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Periyar University, Salem for assisting me in many ways during the process of this research.

I propose my sincere thanks and gratitude to the colleges for allowing me to conduct research survey. My presence in the locality and persistent questions were always received with patience and cheerful hospitality and resulted in insightful interactions. I remember and owe my sincere thanks to Dr. S. Boopathi Assistant Professor, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for introducing me into SPSS package. His constant help and enthusiasm embellished my research work. I owe my deepest gratitude to Dr. R. Wilson,
Assistant Professor Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya, for his timely help and courage.

I specially remember Dr. J. Auxcilia for patiently reading and making necessary corrections in the language.

Friendship is a great gift and my friends have been generous with their warm support. I wish to particularly thank Mr. B. Gopal for spending many laborious hours in helping me at several stages of the thesis. Thanks also go to my friends, colleagues and fellow research workers and juniors for being generous with their warm support.

My heartfelt thanks to my parents, and siblings who have been my continuous source of inspiration and encouragement over these years, without their blessing and support, I would not have been able to start on and my research.
