Acknowledgement

Recite, for your Lord is the Most Generous, Who taught writing by the pen. Taught man what not.

Al-Qur'an (Surah Al-alaq)

First of all, I am thankful to almighty Allah for what he has given to me.
I am also highly indebted to Late Hk. Abdul Hameed Sahib for his selfless efforts to establish this university. May his soul rest in paradise (Ameen!)

It is my pleasure to thank the people who made this thesis possible. I feel honoured and pleased to express my bliss height in expressing my most sincere regards and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Fakhrul Islam for introducing me in the scientific world of Neuroscience, and to let me understand that scientific work is enjoyable rather than a burden. Due to his affectionate inspiration, cool attitude, constant encouragement, profound knowledge, and enthusiasm for research this thesis was first made possible. Words are insufficient to express his affectionate and co-operative nature coupled with deep knowledge of the subject, makes him a unique human being.

I acknowledge with gratitude my co-supervisor Dr. M. Saied Siddiqui for his support, help and encouragement was always forthcoming whenever I needed it most.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Dr. Sarwat Sultan, head of the Department of Medical Elementology and Toxicology for her support, regards and help rendered in registering me for the doctorate program in the University and for supporting this thesis work and for the last three years working at her department.

My sincere thanks goes to Prof. M.Z. Abid Dean Faculty of science for his constant encouragement, moral support and providing necessary facilities to effectively carry out this work.

My whole hearted thanks to my teachers Profs. E. A. Khan and S. Raisuddin, Drs. Sarwat Sultan (HOD), MS Siddiqui, H.A. Khan, Sahel Parvez and Abdur Rah, for their moral support, priceless suggestion, inspiration and guidance throughout the study period.

Profs. Iqbal, S. K. Jain and P. S. Srivastava in their capacity as Deans of Faculty of Science are acknowledged for providing necessary facilities for completion of thesis.

I feel pleasure to express my sincere thanks to Vice Chancellor Dr. G. N. Qazi for taking keen interest in ongoing research and developmental programs in the University.

The individual who was exceedingly generous in extending his help to me is Prof. Omar-El-Agha (UAE University, Al Ain, UAE). I owe a great debt of gratitude to his selfless cooperation in helping me during my research tenure.

Messrs. A. Zaidi, Junaid, Irfahad and S.D. Sharma are highly acknowledged for their technical assistance and versatile expertise they shared with me during the study. The same way I should never forget messers Babu Khan, Idris, Razi, Rahman, Ehtesham, Hashim and Akhlaq, the attendants of the department, forever ready help and cooperation.

The staff of animal house Prof. Shakir Ali, Dr. Ambrosh Tiwari, Messers Tariqat, Ibrahim and Sani Raj deserve a special praise for providing the animals and taking their care. It is really due to their help my experiments were possible.

I also thank the library staff Mrs. Zia Fatima, Mr. Shamsh for their help and cooperation for issuing books during my Ph.D programme.

The special thank for skilful technical assistant of our laboratory, from time to time, Messers Mr. D.V. Singh, Mr. Anil Kumar (Late) and Abdul Fitre whose had done, what they ought to, in a spur and the desired way.

I would like to acknowledge the company, cooperation and help of my labmates during the tenure of the study. My senior labmates: Dr. Mohd Moshahid Khan, Dr. Nasrul Hoda, Dr. Tauheed Ishrat, Dr. M.B. Khan, Dr. Gulna Khwaja, Dr. Ajmal Ahmad, Dr. Pallov Srivastava, Vaibhav, Andleeb, Shazia, Anand, Ejaz, Ashraf, and Rizwana for their invaluable support and selfless help. They have been the driven force behind my efforts.

My days at Hamdard and especially during my stay as a research scholar was nourished being in the company of my classmates and friends Muneeb u Rehman, Wajidul Qamar, Abdul Lateef, Rehan Khan, Farah Ali, Sajad Zafar, Kumar Vaibhav and Andleeb. My heartiest wishes are always with them for bright and successful future in every aspect of life (Aameen).

All I did and tried to accomplish was always seen and discussed with people who will remain special to me always. People like Drs. Mohd Moshahid Khan, Suhel Parvez, Abdur Rub, Ajmal Ahmad, M.B. Khan, M.N. Hoda and Tauheed Ishrat. I would never forget their cordial cooperation during many occasional light and dark moments of research that I shared with them.

Most importantly, I would like to thank and feel short of words to express my sincere thanks to my parents, sisters and brothers for their care, sacrifice, support, encouragement and affection and who’s always inspired me By their breathless efforts.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge all the experimental animals that silently sacrificed their lives for my experimental studies.

(Nayate Javed)