I deem it my most pleasurable duty to express my gratitude to my all colleagues and friends, Deptt. of Chemistry, Govt. Science College Raipur, for their inspiration and help.

I wish to record my deepest sense of gratitude to my husband, Shri Krishna Kumar Nigam without whose co-operation and support, I could not be able to do research work. I express my profound sense of thankfulness to respected parents in-law Shri H. S. Nigam, Smt. Shantidevi Nigam, Dr. L. S. Nigam & Dr. Shobha Nigam, Kuldeep, Rajendra, Preeti and others family members, Messrs. B. S. Thakur, & S. P. Beohar, for their inspiration and blessing.

I am heartily thankful to Smt. Kalpana and Shri Naresh Shrivastava without whose help it would have been difficult for me to do work at Rajnandgaon.

My thanks are due to the USIC Delhi University, Director CDRI, Lucknow (UP), RSIC, Nagpur and Kamraj University Madurai, for providing analytical results including TGA / DTA and IR measurement.

I also sincerely wish to thank UGC, Bhopal (MP) for providing me teacher fellowship.

I am thankful to INSDOC, Delhi and I.I. Sc. Bangalore for sending literature.

Mr. Narendra & Mahendra Patel and Mr. C. R. Ratre deserves my appreciation for bringing out this thesis in such a nice format.

At the end, I want to express my gratitude towards my lone loving son Ashish - - - but words can not express feelings of my heart !. I will be always thankful to him for his mute co-operation.
