SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

WORKS BY MULK RAJ ANAND

Since some of Anand's novels have gone into several editions and reprints, here only his first editions are listed. The editions referred to in this study are not necessarily the first editions, but those that have either been revised or are regarded as the best. Readers are urged to use the Bodley Head editions (reprinted by Orient Paperbacks, New Delhi) of Untouchable, Coolie and Private Life of an Indian Prince and the Cedric Chivers edition of Seven Summers. The four titles mentioned above have introductions by Saros Cowasjee.
