Acknowledgement

Keeping in mind the increasing need of English language learning, the researcher has made an humble attempt to help the students by developing the programme to teach the hardpoints of english in the present research.

I owe debt of gratitude to my guide Dr. Manahar J. Thakersir who with his unique insight in research continuously enlightened my path in the present research. The researcher is deeply grateful to him for immaculate guidance, towering positive attitude and constructive criticism during my work. No word is ever sufficient to express my sincere gratitude to him.

I am also thankful to Dr. Jagdish Ramanujisir, the head of the department and Dr. J.P. Maiyanisir for motivation, guidance and support. My deep and sincere gratitude to Dr. Navanit Rathodsir for inspiring and illuminating guidance, for helping me in processing the data on SPSS and for assisting me in presenting the data properly in the research work.

I am also thankful to all the professors for their continuous help and guidance.

I am thankful to my principal for the continuous support. I also appreciate the help rendered to me by my fellow colleagues in this work. I am highly thankful to the trustees and the educational director for giving me permission and facility for conducting the experiment in the school of our institute.

My earnest thanks to the experts Dr. Prafullaben Vora, Dr. Jagdeep Sonwane sir, Assit. Pro. Jagati Raval, Dr Rakshaben Dave and Dr. Narvan Baraiya who devoted their precious time to examine the tests and for making valuable suggestions in construction of the tests.
The school authorities and all the principals who generously permitted me to carry out the pilot work, experimentation and data collection in their schools for my work, also deserve my salute.

My sincere thanks to my husband Mr. Nitin K. Maniar for his constant encouragements, active help in computing and of course in taking care of my both the daughters without which I could not have completed my work. I heartily thanked him for everything that he has done to make me complete this laborious task successfully.

I would like to express my love and deep grace to both of my daughters Khyati and Dhanyata on this occasion.

I sincerely thank Father-in-law Shree Kanaiyalal K. Maniar and Mother in law Mrs. Sumitraben K. Maniar without whose careful, distal support, encouragement and motivation, this would never be a successful one.

With deep, sincere gratitude, I would like to offer the entire achievement of mine to my late father Shree Prataprai Parekh who motivated me constantly for higher studies especially the coveted Ph.D degree and would have been the happiest person of the world to see this thesis. I tearfully dedicate this piece of my research work to him.

Thanks to all who directly or indirectly render help, co-operation and support in my this research work.
