ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First of all, I thank the Almighty to be the source of ambition and inspiration for me during this research work.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to all those who have been a great source of inspiration and encouragement in my research work. I must make special mention of some of the persons and acknowledge my sincere indebtedness to them.

This mammoth research work could not have been possible had the whole cooperation and moral support along with proper guidance not been extended to me.

I heartily thank Dr. J. A. Jarsaniya and guide me constantly to complete this difficult task of research. Without his intense and careful guidance, I could not have completed my work. His always provides continuous encouragement, valuable suggestions, inspiring involvements, able guidance and co-operation throughout the period of research work.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Minakshi D. Desai, who has been a source of inspiration to me. She deserves special mention as they have taught me, corrected me whenever needed and gives me moral and emotional support.

I am thankful to the Head of the Department Dr. D. J. Bhatt, who has given me this chance, Dr. G. R. Joshi as well as Dr. Y. A. Jogsan.

For statistical guidance and help, I am extremely grateful to Dr. Naimesh R. Desai for his expert and valuable advice and assistance.

This research would not have been accomplished without cooperation and moral support. The author is extremely obliged and grateful to all the institutes, and the principal of the colleges who permit me for the data collection. Also special thanks to the students to rely and give sufficient informations.

Lastly, I would like to thank my friends and family, without whom I simply would not be here today. I am deeply indebted to my respectable parents and all other members of family who have offered me such an opportunity and provided me courage and spirit to keep up my task.
