I owe my loving thanks to my wife. She may have lost a lot due to my research. Without her boost and understanding, it would have been tough for me to accomplish this task. I always thank to Allah for giving me such a beautiful blessing “my son”. He was all the time stress – buster for me.

Last but not least, in fact most significant portion of my existence, my parents. I can count myself amongst the most blessed ones. My affectionate to my loving mother, brothers and cousins, I found them around myself always to enjoy my delighted moments and to share my exhausting times. Their forever support in everything where I exerted and their constant applaud on my success, gave me strength to counter tiring burden of setbacks. Their wisdom and experience taught me morality and transformed me into a better individual. No doubt it can’t ever be enough to convey our appreciation through words for our parents, most simple mean I can have in my mind to repay them is through prayers.

Lastly, All the praises and thanks be to ALLAH, the Lord of the ‘Álamín. The most Gracious, the Most Merciful. The only Owner (and the only Ruling Judge) of the Day of Recompense (i.e. the Day of Resurrection). You (Alone) we worship, and You (Alone) we ask for help (for each and everything). Guide us the straight way. The way of those on whom You have bestowed Your Grace, not (the way) of those who earned Your Anger nor of those who went astray. Ameen
