Acknowledgement

An achievement of some worth takes a lot from a lot of people and this work, in that respect, is not an exception. I have taken into account the suggestions and advice of many people from various walks of life and I find it really hard to mention them all here. Still, the following words of acknowledgement, I hope, will satisfy my conscience.

First and foremost, I thank the almighty for the love and protection He has bestowed upon me.

I duly register my sincere gratitude to Dr. P. Sumangala, Professor of Economics, Department of Economics, GRI for her constant guidance, persistent encouragement and valuable help during the study period and the successful completion of this work.

I profusely thank Dr. N.D. Mani, Head of the,Department, RDM, GRI, for his extraordinary help, constructive criticism and creative suggestions during the entire period of the study.

I am grateful to Dr. Jayadevadas, Director Distance Education Centre, University of Kerala, for his suggestions and advice during the formative period of the study. I am immensely thankful to Dr. B.S Nagarajan, former Head, Department of Economics, GRI, for his suggestions during discussions which were of great help in the final stages of the study.

I stand obliged to Dr. M.A. Sudhir, Professor and Head, Department of Research and Development, GRI, and Dr. Siva Prakasam, Reader in Statistics, Department of Research and Development, GRI, for their advice and suggestions at different stages of my work.
Dr. Sudev, and Mr. Oommen (Centre for Population Studies, University of Kerala) gave the best of their statistical skills in the data processing of this work. I sincerely thank both of them,

I received whole-hearted and selfless help and assistance from people of different walks of life, especially during the period of data collection. Sanandaraj, Teacher L.P.S., Nilamboor in Malappuram District was of great help. I am also thankful to Pradeep, Member of Panchayat, Malappuram for his helping hand in data collection. The data collection in Idukky District wouldn’t have been successful but for Mr. Babu Sebastian, Director, Asraya. His support is appreciated and acknowledged here.

I thank Lekshmi and Aim, who helped me carry out my data collection in Trivandrum.

Those who responded to my questionnaire, whose responses went into the very fabric of this thesis, are many and their cooperation is worth appreciating. I am also grateful to the functionaries of various Panchayat and Block offices for their cooperation and support in the successful and timely completion of data collection,

I am deeply indebted to Dr. M. A. Jeyaraju, Professor, Faculty of English and Foreign Languages, GRI, for the earnest efforts he took in meticulously editing the thesis and also for the modifications in the final draft of the thesis.

I appreciate the contributions of my family members, my mother, brothers Jayaprakash, Manikuttan and Sreekumar and sisters Letha, Sudha and Raji in supporting me in many ways in the completion of the work.

Finally, I owe a word of thanks to Elango, Eye Net Computers for its timely help in printing of the thesis.

Sandhya K. Panicker