ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words cannot express enough the heartfelt gratitude. As research work of this kind cannot be completed without the support from the guide, family, friends and well wishers. Before I move on to examine, The Tragic Vision in Eugene O’Neill’s Plays: A Thematic Study. I must acknowledge my gratitude to all on whom I relied for this work. First of all I wish to extend my sincere gratitude to my supervising guide Dr.R.K.Mandalia, Senior Associate Professor in Dept.of English, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh VidhyaNagar who has directed my efforts with precision, meticulousness and scholarly guidance. Her clear perception, methodical approach and thorough insight into the subject have been of immense help to me in my scholarly pursuit. I am heartily thankful to him whose encouragement, supervision and support from the preliminary to the concluding level enabled me to develop an understanding of the subject. I have been also thankful to the officials of Sardar Patel University libraries for providing me needed books and journals. I am also thankful to Dr. J.H.Khan, Professor & Head, Dept. of English, Sardar Patel University, Dr. P.J.Dave, Associate Professor, Mr. Manish Solanki and Mr. Piyush Raval whose literary insights gave me a clearer perception pertaining to my research. I must specially thank my cousin brother Ravikant Solanki for just being there whenever I needed them. Finally, I take this opportunity to express my love and gratitude to my beloved parents for keeping my spirits alive and sustaining me through the long years of my research. I also especially thankful to all those who although unmentioned have directly or indirectly supported and helped me in more ways than one. There is almighty God, who guides us with His (or Her) presence when one is on the brink of losing faith. I thank Him whole-heartedly.
