ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I humbly bow before God, the Almighty, and thank him for the wisdom, courage, strength and understanding he bestowed on me.

My sincere gratitude extends to the Government of the Republic of Guyana; Yeshu Darbar, through the Honorable Vice Chancellor, SHIATS; and the Management of the Guyana Rice Development board for affording me the opportunity to pursue the Doctorate of Philosophy degree.

Words cannot express my thankfulness to my advisor, a woman of distinction, Dr (Mrs.) Sobita Simon, Professor, Department of Plant Pathology, SHIATS, for her relentless patience, her immense knowledge and experience in guiding me throughout this program. My stint under her supervision and guidance was greatly rewarding and I am greatly appreciative.

To my co-advisor, Dr. Ashwani Kumar, Associate Professor, Department of Entomology, SHIATS for his constant interest and availability in providing consultations when necessary during my study program and research. To other members of my advisory committee, Dr. Gautam Ghosh, Professor and Dean, College of Agriculture, SHIATS and Dr. Shafaat Ahmad, Professor and Head, Department of Plant Pathology and Entomology, SHIATS; I express great appreciation for the knowledge you shared and your continued encouragement and guidance.

Sincere thanks to the Head, Department of Entomology for sanctioning the use of materials, equipment and infrastructure to carry out this research.

Let me highlight my indebtedness to the teaching staff of the Plant Pathology and Entomology Departments for their keen interest and constant support. Also, to the non-teaching staff for their support and labor so efficiently carried out.

I wish to extend much love unceasingly to my parents, siblings and in-laws for believing in me, for supporting me and for always being there. No words can express how grateful I am for being a part of your lives.
It is with heartfelt sincerity that I express my gratitude to the Simon family – Mr. H. P. Simon, Sonia, Poonam, Anoorag and Mr. Soni Simon for inviting me into their home and making me a part of the family. You have surely made my stay here comfortable and worth the while. My family and I will always be grateful to you for giving me a home away from home.

And last but not least, my wonderful friends Ranald, Anoorag, Yogi, Dr. Gagandeep, Dr. Inderpreet, Madhumita, Neelam, Shweta and Mayank. My gratefulness to you is immeasurable. For the names which have not been mentioned, be rest assured that you were not forgotten. Heartfelt thanks to you all.
