Thank Almighty!

Many people helped me in different ways in completing my Ph.D thesis and I would like to take this opportunity to thank them all. First, I would like to thank COL. PROF. DR. G. JAMES PITCHAI, Vice Chancellor, DR. P. K. MANOHARAN Registrar and DR. G. GANESAN, Director, Research and Development Centre, Bharathiar University for granting permission to carry out the research work in the esteemed institution to the best of my ability.

I would like to acknowledge and thank the consistent help, advice and prompt support of my research supervisor DR. P. JAGANATHAN, M.C.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head, Department of Computer Applications, PSNA College of Engineering and Technology, Dindigul. He has provided me the necessary tools and has always allowed me complete freedom to define and explore my own directions, throughout my research. I have to appreciate the wisdom of his way - it encouraged me to think for myself. I specially thank him for the wonderful experience in working with him as co-investigator of an AICTE sponsored research project obtained under research promotion scheme which assisted me to complete the thesis. This work would have been impossible without his guidance, criticism, endorsement and patience.

I express my sincere gratitude to DR. T. DEVI Ph.D., Head, Department of Computer Science and Applications, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, for her prompt and sincere efforts in conducting doctoral committee meetings and providing potential guidance throughout the period of this research work. I also thank all the doctoral committee members who intensely helped me for the successful completion of this research work.

I sincerely thank a group of people, who I am unaware, the Editors and Reviewers of International Journals and Conferences who have edited and reviewed my manuscripts many times to make it sensible and get published at the International level.
I would like to express my gratitude to the Management of PSNA College of Engineering and Technology, who always supported me and for making sure an unhampered access to International Journals and laboratory facilities in the campus. I specially thank them in this regard for their motivation.

I specially thank all my teachers from school to post graduate courses who have been the role model for me in learning everything about education, society and life. I extend my sincere thanks to The Principal, The Registrar, Administrative Officer, and office people of PSNA College of Engineering and Technology for their support. I also extend my thanks to all the technical staff of Research and Development centre, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for their sincere response and service during my association with them.

I truly thank Dr.K.Thangavel, Dr.K.Thyagarajah, Dr.A.Ramakrishnan, Dr. V.Rajamani, Dr. Madheswaran, Dr.Dominic, Dr. D.Vasudevan, Dr.G.Sivakumar, Prof.M.P.Raghavan, Prof.K.Kathirvel, Dr.K.Balasubramanian, Dr.G.V.T.Gopalakrishnan, Dr.V.Devendran, Dr.A.Nagarajan, Dr.Anandh Babu, Mr.P.Babu, Ms.Nagalakshmi from TCS, my friends, and colleagues from engineering departments for having a number of research and non-research related adventures, with whom I had a lot of interesting discussions on several aspects of data mining, research and personal life.

I am indebted to my colleagues of the Department of Computer Applications, PSNA College of Engineering and Technology, Dindigul, for rendering me their patience, help and tolerance in troubled times.

I specially thank all my collaborative researchers Mr. S.Jaiganesh, Mr. M.Rajinikanth, Mr.R. Kuppuchamy and Mr.T. Karthikeyan for their support during both the highs and lows of my time in research. I thank the Programmers Mr. T.Gunasekaran, Mr. S.Nagarajan and Mr. P.Kannan who helped me a lot in all matters of technical and non-technical assistance. I also would like to express my gratitude to a number of people whom I have missed to mention and have contributed each in their own way to the accomplishment of this work.
Special thanks must also go to my living mother and my father in heaven for their tireless efforts and unwavering support to nourish my dreams of higher education and for always being there. I extend my gratitude to all my relatives and neighbors who have been helping and watching my academic growth from childhood.

I have the pleasure to thank my wife R. Ehilarasi, Son Master. R. Muthu Roghinth and Daughter Selvi.R. Midunya Varsha who helped me get through the difficult times, and for all the emotional support, laughs, entertainment and caring they provided. There is no way I can express how much they mean to me and how much I value their support.

Once again I thank dear Dr.Jag. as my friend, philosopher and guide. Here,
I would like to extend my appreciation to his parents and his family Mrs.Vasuki Jaganathan, Mr. J. Vijay Adithyan and Master. J. Harish Srivatsava for registering me as one of the members of their family and providing unconditional support and care throughout my doctoral duration and before. I wish the members a memorable and prosperous future in their academic endeavors and personal life.

Of all these, Foremost, I thank Almighty the superior force, for the successful completion of my first journey in the field of Knowledge Discovery in Databases thereby making a small innovation in the form of a research dissertation.
