Reading and mathematical ability are basic abilities, acquisition of which has a major impact on the learning capabilities and academic grades of the students right from the primary level. The aim of the present investigation was to gain insight into the cognitive and neuropsychological level, if detected during the early stages, can be countered by remedial training.

First and foremost, I would like to thank God who was always within me and who showed me the right path during the entire course of study.

My overwhelming and heartfelt thanks are going to my supervisor Dr. Amrita Yadava, Professor, Department of Psychology for her untiring patience, encouragement understanding, cooperation, moral support and invaluable suggestions without which this task would not have been accomplished.

I further extend my thanks to Dr. Novrattan Sharma, Reader and Head, Department of Psychology for his cooperation and encouragement whenever required.

I am overwhelmed by feelings of utmost respect to my parents Sh. Sushil Kumar and Smt. Sumint Yadav for their unending encouragement and profuse blessings for finishing the work with unremitting zeal, élan and fervor. I would also like to thank my brother Mr. Parvesh Yadav, my sister Miss Naveta Yadav for their kind, affectionate, sincere and wise advice, help and encouragement at all stage of my study.

I am sincerely and specially thankful to my in-laws, especially my father-in-law Sh. Bhim Singh Yadav who has always been a constant source of my inspiration and who forms the backbone of my success by helping me in every possible manner. It is only due to their blessings that my study could see completion.

My deepest appreciation goes to my husband Mr. Paramveer Yadav, who always provided me with the required emotional strength to cope with the mental strains I experienced during this period. I shall remain indebted to them through my life.
I could not forget the suggestions of my sister Dr. Rachna Yadav, my friends Dr. Reeti and Poonam, who gave me every sort of cooperation and inspiration.

I am also thankful to those teachers who helped me in making the tests which is very useful for this study.

All my respondents have a special place and regard in my heart for their invaluable support and help whose enthusiasm, zeal and interest not only reinforced but put me on cloud nine in my data collection phase.

Last but not the least, I am also thankful to Mr. Raj Kumar Pahwa and Mr. Sunil Dahiya, M/S S.S. Computer Centre, for completion the typing work within the stipulated timeframe.

Neeraj Yadav