ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to thank USIS, Bombay for my initiation in Jack London’s works. I also acknowledge the help from the American Library, Bombay and ASRC Library, Hyderabad, for supplying me books written by Jack London, and books of critical and biographical studies on Jack London, from time to time, by registered book-post.

I must express my deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. P. S. Sastri, Professor and Head of the Department of English, University of Nagpur, for rendering me, his expert guidance, valuable advice and kind help in preparation of this dissertation.

I am indebted to Mr. B. A. Lohof, the Director of the American Studies Research Centre, Hyderabad, for awarding a research study grant to me, which enabled me to read and collect valuable material on Jack London, at the ASRC, Hyderabad. The Jack London Newsletter, periodical, volumes from Jan-Apr 1969 to Sept-Dec 1976 were also available there. The ASRC has certainly become a place of pilgrimage, for the research scholars of American literature all over India.

I sincerely thank Mr. H. U. Khan, M.A. for sparing his valuable time, in typing my thesis, most efficiently, in a short time, in spite of his busy schedule of work. He had been my most trusted and meritorious student.

Finally, my wife Mrs. Shashikala P. Limaye, had been a great source of inspiration and help to me, in my work, as Charmian had been to Jack London.

Dated:
Nov.1, 1977.
