ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Among those who helped and guided me to complete this work, my supervisor, Dr. S.P. Shukla, Professor, Department of History, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, deserves my sincerest gratitude. I have no hesitation in acknowledging the fact that it would have been rather impossible for me to accomplish this job successfully, had he not encouraged me and given his skilled and learned guidance. His critical analysis was a source of inspiration and kept my interest intact in the subject.

I am grateful to the Maharshi Dayanand University for extending financial help.

I am grateful to my husband, my parents-in-law and my brother-in-law, who kept my spirits high during this difficult job and did not mind the inconveniences during my absence from home.

I owe my gratitude to my father for going through the manuscript and offering suggestions. Debating the subject with him sharpened my wits and brightened my intelligence.

I am also thankful to Dr. Yadav, our family friend, Mr. Pradeep Punia and my senior Dr. Ritu Lal for their beneficial assistance.

My sincere thanks are also due to Mr. Gulshan Rana, who has typed this thesis efficiently.

My thanks are also due to the authorities and the staff of the National Archives of India, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, Sapru House Library, Gandhi Peace Foundation Library, Jawahar Lal Nehru University Library, P.C. Joshi Archives (JNU Campus), Indian Council of Historical Research Library and Indian Council of Social Science Research Library for providing me with all the facilities and most of the source material I needed for this study. I am also thankful to the Librarian and the staff members of the Maharshi Dayanand Library, Rohtak for their help, assistance and co-operation which they extended to me during my research.

( APRASHTA )