ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Almighty plays a great role in the culmination of any endeavour so I thank the Almighty for being magnanimous throughout the process of this research despite hard pressing Socio-official obligations. Whenever I got bogged down and low in spirits, the blessing of Sai Baba provided me courage, direction and inspiration to continue.

I am pleased to acknowledge the support and encouragement I have received all through the process of this study. First of all, I feel fortunate to have a learned person of the calibre of Dr. Harish Kumar, Professor in Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, M.D. University, Rohtak, as my supervisor. He is known for their enriched knowledge of the subject and perfect guidance. Honestly speaking, this study could become a reality due to his guidance based on his global exposure to the mass media studies. I will always remain obliged to him for his affection, generosity and his promptness to help.

I am thankful to Dr. Sarojini Nandal, Head, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, M.D. University, Rohtak for her encouragement and administrative help. My special thanks are reserved for my colleagues, Dr. Sewa Singh Bajwa, Asst. Prof. in Department of Journalism & Mass Communication for showing keen interest in my research work whose help was of great help in this research work. Mr. Amit Sangwan, Asst. Prof. in Department of Journalism & Mass Communication, CDLU, Sirsa also deserve gratitude for their unstinting support during my research work.

I am indebted to Professor Kanwar Chauhan, Department of Sociology, M.D. University, Rohtak and Dr. H.J. Ghosh Rai, Dean, Faculty of Management and Director IMSAR, M.D. University, Rohtak, for their keen interest and support to my research work that has been profitably enriched by their critical insights.

I am thankful to Dr. Rajnesh Ahlawat & Dr. Sanjeet, Asst. Prof. Department of Business Administration, CDLU, Sirsa, Dr. Manoj Siwach, Registrar and Associate Professor C.D.L.U, Sirsa, Dr. Abhey Godara, Chairperson, Department of Economics, CDLU, Sirsa, Dr. Sultan Dhanda, Asst. Prof. and Deputy Director Distance Education, CDLU, Sirsa, Dr. Surender Kundu, Assistant Prof. in the Department of Commerce, CDLU, Sirsa for their cooperation in getting my work completed in time.

I am grateful to all the staff members associated with different libraries and institutions like MDU, Rohtak, GJUS&T Hisar, KUK, Makhan Lal Chaturvadi Rastiya Patarkarita Viswavidalya, Bhopal and Indian Institute of Mass Communication (IIMC), New Delhi who allowed and co-operated me to collect research material.

I put on record my thanks to the selected respondents of Degree Colleges and the officials of the colleges whose co-operation and contribution was vital for this research.

I must not forget to acknowledge the contribution of my parents-Sh. Mangat Ram and mother Smt. Raj Bala and my revered father-in-law Hans Raj Pagar who always motivated me to rise higher and higher through sincerity and honesty. In fact their support was great significance for me.

I extend my thanks to Sh. Sunit Mukherjee for his brotherly treatment and ready to help nature & attitude and moral support.
My wife Smt. Pooja Dhillon has sacrificed a lot of time during the course of my research work. My daughter Prema, my twin sons Rudra Pratap and Prabal Pratap silently lent her support and always wished an early completion of my work. This research would never have been possible without their help and co-operation.
