ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Right at the outset, let me, in all humility, thank God Almighty for giving me the knowledge, strength and ability to complete my research work successfully.

I thank Him for giving me a magnificent dedicated guide and teacher in Dr. E. James Reynold Daniel, former Principal, Scott Christian College, Nagercoil. It’s my utmost gratification to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. E. James Reynold Daniel, for his profound scholarship, methodical guidance and patient ‘discussions and interactions’ and under whose guidance I was able to do and complete my research work successfully. Indeed I consider myself very fortunate in being his student during my graduation and post-graduation. And I am doubly lucky that I got an equally rarest of the rarest opportunity to do my doctorate under my beloved teacher.

It’s my great pleasure to thank my co-guide Dr. N. Krishnan, Reader in the Department of Tamil, S.T. Hindu College, Nagercoil for being my co-guide and for offering timely guidance and encouragement whenever it is needed and possible.

I owe my sincere gratitude to Pr. V. Victor Gnanaraj, who was gracious enough to strengthen me and offer moral support through his prayers, all through the preparation of the thesis.

I am highly indebted to my revered teacher Prof. M. Sebastian whose concern and erudition have inspired me to do my best and he encouraged me whenever I felt dejected in my scholastic endeavours.
I owe my sincere thanks to my brother Dr. M. Elias and my sister Dr. M. R. Basil Rose for their continuous encouragement in literally ‘chasing’ during this long period of my research.

I wish to express my gratitude to Dr. B. Bosco of St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli and Dr. M. Johnsy of Holy Cross College, Nagercoil for their constant help in getting the necessary books and materials for my research.

I express my sincere thanks to the librarians of Connemara Library, Chennai, International Institute of Tamil Studies, Chennai, SCILET Library of American College, Madurai, Institute of English, Thiruvananthapuram and the University of Kerala for their cooperation and timely help.

I also wish to profusely thank the Founder-Patron, Office Bearers and all members of the J’s Academy of Modern English Studies (JAMES) for providing me chances through paper presentations and interactions which indeed was timely guidance in my research and which enabled me to optimize my research output.

This thesis would not have been submitted in time, if Mr. D. Simon of Concordia Seminary had not stood by me in spite of his health hazards. I extend my very sincere thanks to him.

[M.R. ANILA ROSE]