ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The work presented in the thesis is the outcome of the erudite guidance and inspiration of my supervisor Dr Yajulu Medury, the Chief Operating Officer, Jaypee Education System, JIIT. His continuous encouragement and motivation instilled in me the confidence to bring this research work to its culmination.

I would like to pay earnest regards to Prof J.P Gupta (Vice Chancellor, JIIT, Noida) and Dr Ravi Shanker (Professor, IIFT) for nominating me for the requisite training programmes and workshops for carrying out the research successfully. Their constant support and guidance helped me to improve and refine my work at the various stages.

I would specially like to thank Dr Harsh Sharma, Associate Professor (ASCI, Hyderabad) who provided his valuable inputs from the inception of this work to its culmination.

I am grateful to all those participants who have provided me the necessary data for the fulfillment of this research without which this work would have not been possible.

I would also like to thank Registry (JIIT), my colleagues at JBS specially the HR department who helped me out for proper and timely fulfillment of my work.

I acknowledge all the authors from whom I have taken the direct or indirect inspiration to carry forward the research work. In some instances I have been unable to trace the owner of copyright material, and I would appreciate any information that would enable me to do so.

Finally, I must thank family and friends for their support through the entire process, especially to my mother-in-law, Mrs. Usha Sharma, for being the pillar of encouragement. I would like to express my appreciation for my son Vedant, for his love and affection. I am indebted to Mr. Shivam Sharma, who plays the multiple roles of a husband, partner, collaborator, colleague, and a best friend. It is with all my love, respect, and appreciation that I dedicate this thesis to them.
