Bibliography

Primary Source:

- A comprehensive note on Jammu & Kashmir, Government of India, Association for Communal Harmony (ACHA), Archive of Kashmir Resources.

- A Deutsche Presse Agentur report said that despite Ceylon's restrictions Pakistani military aircraft had been passing from the west to the east wing through the island, Asian Recorder, Vol. XVII, No. 18, "Ceylon's Restrictions on Pakistani Aircraft".

- A Talk with India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, Newsweek, November 15, 1971.

- A Talk with Pakistan's President Yahya Khan, Newsweek, November 8, 1971.

- After the split in the Congress in November 1969, it had lost its status as a majority party, Asian Recorder, Vol. XVII, No. 3, "Lok Sabha Dissolved, Fresh Election Ordered".

- Asian Recorder, "President Yahya Khan's broadcast".

- Asian Recorder, "Violent Demonstrations, Curfew Imposed".

Bangladesh: Out of War, a Nation is Born, Time, December 27, 1971.

Bangladesh is over the Border, The Economist, April 24, 1971.

Economist. 11 Sep 1965, "Although Indian troops crossed into West Pakistan only on Monday morning (6 Sep), the die had been cast five days earlier, when Pakistan launched a large attack in the Chhamb area of southern Kashmir".

Frontline, June 18, 1999.

Good Soldier Yahya Khan, Time, August 2, 1971.

In his broadcast to the nation on 26 March 1971, President Yahya Khan charged Sheikh Mujib with treason.

In January 2002, under American pressure, Pakistan ordered closure of nearly 7600 such schools. DAWN, January 8, 2002.

Nawa-i-Waqt, Lahore, May 9, 1965.

On 13 November 1970, cyclone havoc in East Pakistan claimed 2 million lives, as reported by The Times, London.

Radio Pakistan announced on 1 March the appointment of Lt Gen Shahbjada Mohammad Yakub Khan as the province's Martial Law Administrator in place of the Governor, Admiral S.K. Khan.

Resolution adopted at the meeting of the United Nations Commission for India and Pakistan on 5 January 1949. (Document No. 5/1196, Para is dated 10 January 1949), UNCIP unanimously adopted this Resolution on 5 January 1949, Members of the Commission: Argentina, Belgium, Columbia, Czechoslovakia and USA.

The Economist, May 1, 1965.

The Times of India, New Delhi, July 18, 1965.

Times of India of June 17, 1999 estimated that Post-Kargil deployment along the Line of Control would cost India Rs. 300 crore per month, and on June 18, 1999 estimated the cost of the war at Rs. 10 to 20 crore per day. Pakistan was reported to be spending US$ 3 million per day on defending the Line of Control (Outlook and Frontline, June and July 1999).

Times of India, July 10, 1999.

Secondary Sources:

Dhar, M.K., Mission to Pakistan: An Intelligence Agent in Pakistan, Manas Publications, New Delhi, 2002.

Kanwal, Gurmeet, Pakistan's Proxy War, Lancer Publisher & Distributors, New Delhi, 2002.

Ram, Major General Samay (Retd.), Tackling Insurgency & Terrorism, Manas Publications, New Delhi, 2003.

Roop Lal, Pakistan: Return from Gallows (In Hindi), Manas Publications, New Delhi, 2005.

Ziring, Lawrence, Pakistan at the Crosscurrent of History, Manas Publications, New Delhi, 2005.

Internet:
