ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Through the grace of "ALLAH" the research work undertaken has arrived at happy close.

On the eve of presenting the Ph. D thesis, I take this as an unique opportunity to express my sincere and whole hearted thanks, gratitude to my esteemed mentor Dr. M. Shahar Yar, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Faculty of Pharmacy, Jamia Hamdard, for his regular advice, magnitude of his dynastic and untiresome guidance, suggestion and encouragement throughout the course of present investigations. I am highly indebted to his untiresome perseverance, which helped me to present this work in the right perspective, assuming the full form of the thesis.

Sincere gratitude must be extended to my other supervisor Dr. Amees A. Siddiqui, for his interminable cooperation and inexplicable affection, which was a source of constant encouragement.

I take this opportunity to extend my regards to Prof. S. A. Khan, Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy and Head, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Faculty of Pharmacy, Jamia Hamdard, for providing me all necessary facilities for completing this research work.

I am thankful to Janab Abdul Mueed Sahib, Chief Mutawalli Hamdard Wakf laboratories for providing infrastructural facilities.

I am grateful to honorable Vice Chancellor Jamia Hamdard, for providing congenial research environment.

I am highly grateful to Tuberculosis Antimicrobial Acquisition and Coordinating Facility (TAACF), National Institute of Allergy and Infections Diseases Southern Research institute/GW Long Hansen's Disease Center, Colorado State University Birmingham, Alamba, USA, for the in vitro antimycobacterial screening, Dr. Kiran Smith, National Cancer Institute-USA, Dr. Erick De Clercq, Rega Institute for Medical Research Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, B-3000 Leuven Belgium for anti-HIV screening & antiviral screening, Dr. Kirity Roy, Nicholas primal India limited Mumbai-India for antimicrobial screening.
I am thankful to IIT, New Delhi for helping me in getting the required spectra. I am gratified to J. S. S College of Pharmacy, Ooty for their valuable support.
I am very much thankful to Dr. Asif Hussain, Dr. Syed Misbahul Hasan, Dr. Mynoona Akthar, Mumtaz Alam, Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, for his kind help, support and co-operation during the progress of this work.
