Al-Ḥamdu li-ALLĀH (Praise be to Allāh) The Almighty Creator and Sustainer of the universe, who by His mercy enabled me to complete this work.

A person not thankful to people is not thankful to Allāh Ta‘ālā Himself.
According to this guidance, I express my deep gratitude to my respected and beloved teacher Professor S.M. Yūnus Gīlānī under whose supervision I conducted the research and completed this dissertation.

I am greatly indebted to my parents whose supplications are always with me
For them I always pray that Allāh Ta‘ālā may have mercy on them as they have had on me ever since my childhood.

I must thank my teacher Ab. Aḥad Ganaī for making thorough proof reading of this dissertation.

I am also grateful to my brothers whose dedication, love and affection is a sign of Ukhūwwah for me.

Acknowledgements
I must thank my teachers and the supporting staff in the Institute and especially Br. Zahoor Ahmad, incharge library (SMIS) and family my pupils for their help.
I am also indebted to all those who have been kind enough to help me, in one way or the other, in the completion of this work.
I would like to record my indebtedness to the da‘wah organisations and centres, publishers and personalities who provided me with opportunities to benefit from their experiences.

Finally I hereby declare that this dissertation is the result of my own investigation, except where otherwise stated. Other sources are acknowledged in footnotes giving explicit references and a bibliography is appended at the end.

May Allāh Ta‘ālā accept my humble effort and make it a means of my salvation in the Hereafter. Āmīn.
