Acknowledgement

First and foremost, praises and thanks to the God, the Almighty, for His showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully and who keep me energetic and enthusiastic at every moment to do something in this life and I made what I can do in appropriate way and my ambition the blessings and forgiveness from him. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including country, my family, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me.

I am gratefully indebted to my thesis supervisor Prof. V. M. Pathak for his valuable and inspiring guidance throughout my research work. There are no adequate word to explain his keen interest, immense patience, kind advice, sustained encouragement, constant help and throughout provoking discussions that I had with him during this time and consider myself very lucky to work under his guidance. To work under the guidance a great and inexplicable experience, which I will ever remember in my life. I am grateful to him for revealing me the richness of my research work. It was a valuable experience to work with and learn so many things from such him as a human being.

It is my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. K. D. Patel and Prof. G. K. Solanki for their affectionate guidance and efficient supervision and personal attention which have provided good and smooth basis for my Ph. D. tenure by giving valuable suggestions at each and various stages of this work of a scientific and academic nature as well.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. U.H. Patel (Head of the Department), Prof. A. R. Jani & Prof. K. N. Joshipura, (Former Heads), Department of Physics, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, for their kind support and encouragement during this work and allowing me to use the departmental and other facilities required to carry out my research work. I express my sincere thanks to all professors of department of Physics, for their keen interest in my research work, kind advice and constant help. Further, I express my deep gratitude and concern for the nonteaching staff members of the department of Physics, for their cooperation during my research work.
I am grateful to Prof. J. H. Khan (Honorary Director of International Students Centre, SPU) and Mr. Varun Patel for their kindness and supports. Thanks also to the authority of Sardar Patel University for providing me all necessary facilities.

I would like to thank Prof. V. S. Patel - Director of Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre for Applied Research and Testing (SICART)– Vallabh Vidyanagar (Gujarat), for providing me analysis facilities in his institution. I am very much thankful to University Scientific Instrumentation Centre (USIC) for helping me to solve many technical problems occurred during research time and the department of chemistry for providing me analysis facilities.

I wish to convey my deep sense of gratitude to the authority Hodeidah University and the department of Graduate studies, Hodeidah University and the Government of Republic of Yemen for providing necessary scholarship to carry out the research work for Ph.D.

My deep thanks to my research colleagues and particularly Dr. Kirankumar K. Patel, Dr. Haresh Patel, Dr. Mayur Patel, Dr. Keyurkumar Hingarajiya, Dr. Jignesh Rathod, Mr. Vishal Pathak, Mrs. Arwa Ahmed, Mr. Mihir Jani, Dr. Ruchita R. Patel, Mr. Arpit S. Paramar and Mr. Prashant Mistry for providing their valuable time and helpful discussions while interpreting the experimental data during my whole research work.

I also wish to convey my deep gratitude towards the help received from all the persons who supported me directly or indirectly throughout the tenure of this work like specially Mr. Ali Ben Ahmed.

I would like to thank people in the Indian community in which I lived, whether in the past or in present for their kindness and good attitude, one of them Mrs. Mumtaj Anuar. During my journey, I will always remember those people with smiley faces and full of love for life. Thanks for all.

At last but not the least, I express my deep sense forever of gratitude to my family. Without their blessings this work could not have been completed. I also appreciate the gesture of my family members specially, my parents, my uncle and my elder brother (Fuad) for their care and warm affection. From the bottom of my heart, I wish to convey my deep sense of gratitude to my kind husband (Bassam Ali) for his moral and emotional support to me to complete this work.

- Ebtesam Kadash