ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I feel that I have not traveled in vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my former guide, Late Dr. Vedamani Manuel, Former Professor of Education, University of Kerala. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. I can’t forget his hard times. Despite of his ill health, he used to review my thesis progress, give his valuable suggestions and made corrections. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me, and I hope to continue to work with his noble thoughts. I wish his soul roots in peace and solace in the heaven. I can only say a proper thanks to his through my future work.

I am also extremely indebted to my guide Dr. P.J. Poulose, now Principal, Mar Kuriakose College, Kurupumpady P.O, Ernakulam, for providing necessary facilities and resources to accomplish my research work. I am very much thankful to him for picking me up as a student at the critical stage of my Ph.D. His optimistic outlook, empathetic approach and the immense confidence that he reposed in enabled me to overcome the seemingly insurmountable odds especially when I encountered many times. This work will ever remind me of my Guru’s invincible virtues.

This thesis would not have been possible without the help, support and patience of Dr. C.P Srikantan Nair, Former Professor, Sree Sankara University of Sanskrit, Kalady not to mention his advice and unsurpassed knowledge, for unfailing interest that he evinced for the completion of this venture and for fine tuning my research findings.

I remember with gratitude and express my sincere thanks to Dr. A. Sukumaran Nair, former Vice-Chancellor, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for scholarly expertise in completing the study in the present form.
I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. T.V. Thulasidharan, Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Science, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, for all the encouragement rendered to me during the course of my study.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and obligation to Dr. K.R. Sivadasan, former Director, Planning and Development, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, for his valuable suggestions and constant encouragement extended throughout the period of research.

I gratefully indebted to the members of faculties of Education, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for their invaluable suggestions and timely help.

I express my thanks to the Librarians and staff members of Mahatma Gandhi University Library, Department Library of School of Pedagogical Sciences, Kerala University, and Calicut University for making library facilities available to me.

I owe my gratitude to the former Principal Dr. Jalajakumari, members of Staff and management of SNDP Yogam Training College, Adimali, for the specific role they played in the conduct of the research.

The unfailing support of my daughter P.S. Nandana (Prema Suda) kept me going all through the course of my study.

Finally, yet importantly, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my beloved parents for their blessings, my friends for their help and wishes for the successful completion of this thesis. My thanks and appreciations also go to my students in developing the thesis and the people who have willingly helped me out with their abilities.

A. Prameela