Acknowledgement

The Socio-economic life of the Boros, has drawn my attention to know and investigate thoroughly about it. I have expressed my willingness to start the work with my guide Professor. Rani Hazarika Kakati, Professor, Department of Anthropology Gauhati University. It is a great pleasure that my guide encouraged me to work in this area and gave consent to take the responsibility of guideship for the said work. Throughout the work, she has been the prime source of inspiration and encouragement to work in different situations in my whole work. I take the opportunity to express my indebtedness and sincere gratefulness for the timely guidance provided by her from the very beginning.

This research work has been done in the Department of Anthropology Gauhati University. I take the privilege to express my sincere gratitude to Professor and Head, Department of Anthropology and all other faculties for their advice and encouragement for the early completion of the work. I also offer my sincere thanks to all the office members of the Department of Anthropology for their advice and encouragement in my whole work.

I take the opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to my father Sri Bhabi Ram Boro who provides me financial help and encouragement in my whole work. Next to my father, my husband Sri Ajit Kumar Daimari deserves special thanks from me, without whose help it would have never been possible to complete the work.
Here, I wish to thank and acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to the people of the three villages – Belguri, Ghiwnala and Murmela, without the company and cooperation of these people my work would have not been properly conducted. I can never forget the help and cooperation extended to me by Ranjit Boro, Bhaben Boro, Kulen Boro, of Belguri village, Prabhan Boro, Meghnath Baglari, Rabindra Boro of Ghiwnala village and Lakheswar Boro, of Murmela village.

My indebtedness is also for my mother and two-brother Dr. Dipak and Jatindra who have been eagerly waiting for the completion of my work, besides helping in all the way in the field visit and other times. My little daughter Ankita always gives me chances to work patiently without much trouble.

I also offer my sincere gratitude to Sujata Bhadra, senior lecturer, Economics Department, Janata College Serfanguri, Kokrajhar for valuable advice and encouragement in whole work.

Last but not least I express my gratefulness to the Librarian of Gauhati University, National Institute of Rural Development, Tribal Research Institute, Women Studies Research Center, Gauhati University, for their help and cooperation during the course of the research.

Kabita Boro
Department of Anthropology
Gauhati University
Guwahati